Lucky Strike Bowling Club
Opened by Mayor

The Lucky Strike Bowling Club was officially opened last night. Located in the basement of the new Mackenzie Building on Main Street, the Club is owned by Al Norton and will be managed by Hal Gibson. Nothing has been spared to make the club a pleasant place for bowlers. There are four fine alleys and the snack bar was doing a thriving business last night. Bowlers were restricted to two games in order that as many as possible could be accommodated.

Mayor Joseph Gibbons officiated at the opening ceremonies at 8 o'clock when he made a short speech congratulating Mr. Norton on adding to Georgetown's recreational facilities. He then bowled the first three balls down the alley. Mrs. Dick Prust was the first to step up to the alley for a regular game and the club was a hive of activity until the 11 p.m. closing hour.

BROTHER OF MRS. J. S. HUGHES DIED SUDDENLY IN OTTAWA

On receiving word of the sudden death of her brother in Ottawa on Monday, May 26th, Mrs. J. S. Hughes left for that city. Mr. Vernon H. Kempfer had been a member of the Ottawa Fire Department for some years. He served overseas for five years during the war, as OQMS with the Princess Louise Dragoons and the Hamilton Light Infantry, and was one of the few who returned after the Dieppe raid.

Born in Smiths Falls forty years ago, he was married to the former Dorothy Olmstead of Fulton, N.Y. who survives, with one son, Calvin James. He also leaves eight sisters, Mrs. Ethel Gauthier, Ottawa, Mrs. V. Kerr, Seattle, Wash., Mrs. W. H. Wolfe, Portland, Oregon, Mrs. Lawrence Bann, Fulton, N.Y., Mrs. Owen Collins, Rochester, N.Y., Mrs. J. S. Hughes, Georgetown, Mrs. Jack Lee, Oshawa and Mrs. Gertrude Greer, Smiths Falls.

At his funeral on Thursday he was accorded full honours of the Fire Department. Represented in the funeral cortege were Ottawa branch of the

Be sure to attend the Presentation to Georgetown's Servicemen, to be held on July 1st, in the Georgetown Park, under the auspices of Georgetown War Services Recognition Committee.
