FRIENDS:—

We have heard many comments on our method of advertising. Most people say it is good, a great many must think it is radical, but like all polite Georgetown people they put up with it.

Our grammar and phraseology are sometimes inadequate to put over what we have to say, and we are not ashamed one bit about these comments because a good farmer is very rarely a good railroad engineer, and a good doctor hardly knows anything about the gear-shifts and air-brakes that a transport driver has to use.

All of which leads us to the conclusion that perhaps we cannot write but if you are reading our advertising we are not wasting our money or Walt Biehn's printer's ink. We can't sell you a car, a radio, a piece of real estate or a bedroom suite. . . BUT we have machine tools and combined years of machine shop experience that are at your disposal 24 hours per day.

PHONE 599 or 4991. If your breakdown is serious let us know at any hour. We will try and help you.

LES. TOMLINSON.

GIFFEN CLAN HOLD ELEVENTH FAMILY REUNION

The eleventh biannual Reunion of the Robert Giffen clan was held at the home of the president, Mr. Leslie Giffen, Lot 8, Concession 6, Esquesing on June 14th.

Despite the all day rain there were 150 guests present from Toronto, Brampton, Inglewood, Stayner, Minnesing and Georgetown. The only surviving member of the Robert Giffen family, Mr. Andrew Giffen, Brampton, was able to be present.

A good time was had by renewing old acquaintances. The young people of the clan gave an enjoyable program and a bountiful lunch was graciously served at noon by the Ashgrove WMS.

A minute's silence was observed in remembrance of those who had passed on to their reward since the last reunion — Mrs. John McMeekin, James Duke, Meredith Snyder and John Modeland.

Short speeches were given by Bob Giffen, Stayner, Joseph and Geoffrey Gray, Etwood Glover, Toronto; Robert Poynts and Andrew Giffen, Brampton, and Leslie Giffen.

Gifts were presented to the two oldest guests present, Mrs. Miller Giffen and Mr. Richard Speirs and the youngest child, little Edmund Duke.

The officers for the next reunion are: Vice Pres. John Giffen, Brampton; Secretary, Mrs. Harry Giffen, Stayner; Treasurer, Aubrey Giffen, Stayner.

The president appointed was Robert (Bob) Giffen, Stayner. He very cordially on behalf of the "Northern Giffens" invited the clan north for the next reunion to be held in 1948.
