Norval Arrows Win Second Straight In Junior Lacrosse

Following the trail blazed when they downed Port Dover 17-5, in their opening lacrosse game, Norval Arrows continued their winning streak last Friday when they played their first game at the Recreational Centre there. This time, Dundas were the luckless victims, to the tune of 16-8 for the high flying Norvalites. The game was somewhat on the rough side, as you can judge from the 25 penalties handed out by referee Milt Burrows of Brampton. Milt did a good job of handling a difficult game.

The presence of Doug Townsend on the line-up made a great difference to the Norval team. Doug scored one goal and would have had more if Lady Luck had been more favourable. Clark Lyons was the leading scorer with 3 goals and as many assists. Shortridge stood out for Dundas, scoring five of their eight goals.

Norval — Spike Scott, Gerry Pendley, Ernie Thompson, Clark Lyons, Bill Laidlaw, Bill Louth, Jim Cleave, Doug Townsend, Bob Hepburn, Johnny Haines, Mel Beaumont, Russ Pendley, Clare Burns.

BANTAMS BEAT CALEDON

It was a double event's win for Norval. Before the big game the Bantams took on Caledon and came out of the best end of a 9-3 score. A number of the bantams are showing good form and some of the lads look like good material for future Junior teams. Sho Teramoto, smooth-playing Jap-Canadian lad, sparked the Norval team to their win, along with Gord Laidlaw who scored three goals. Norval — Walter Alexander, Joe Louth, Doug Allen, Sho Teramoto, Arnie Hazel, Jamie Cunningham, Glenn Elliott, Mac Hyatt, Gord Laidlaw, Ross Oldum, George Piper, Julian Reed, Donald Jayrie, Mitch Hunter.

The court was impatient. It was the fifth day and the twelfth jurymen was still unconvinced. "Well, gentlemen," said the court officer, "shall I order twelve dinners as usual?" "Make it," said the foreman, "eleven dinners and one bale of hay."

Intermediates Tie Acton Here, Loss 13-4 In Halton Hog Town

The Intermediate ballsters didn't have too good a week, chalking up a tie against Acton here last Wednesday and taking a 13-4 trimming in the Acton park on Saturday. Errors played a major part in the tie game in which Georgetown outfit the visitors seven to four, but had five costly misplays which cost them the game. Scotty Patterson, who went the full game on the mound had seven strikeouts and fanned centre-fielder Footit in all his four appearances at bat. In a Georgetown uniform for the first time, Red Williams entered the game in the fifth, battling for Larry Ritchie and took over the 3rd base spot for the remainder of the game. Everett Wilson hit three out of four, including a two-bagger, and Bill Ritchie two out of four to lead the Georgetown sluggers and Patterson and Gibson had one apiece. Masales (2), Morton and Lindsay registered for Acton.

GEORGETOWN DROPS CLOSE GAME TO ACTON JUVENILES

Only a handful of fans turned out at the park Sat. afternoon when Georgetown Juveniles were beaten by Acton in a close game. Georgetown led until the fifth inning when Acton came from behind to score five runs to make the score 8-4. Georgetown tallied three more runs in the sixth, but couldn't catch up. Mel Beaumont almost tied things up in the eighth, when he stole 2nd and 3rd, but was tagged out at home plate when he tried another steal. Acton added another run in the ninth to make the final score 9-7.

Haines and Beaumont had three hits apiece, Dillon two and Scott and Anderson one hit apiece. Anderson pitching his first league game, did a good job for the locals. Mowat and "Lefty" Lawson shared the pitching chore for Acton.

TROPHY NEEDED FOR GRC MIDGET BALL LOOP

Three snappy midget baseball teams have been lined up by the Recreational Council, and the young lads will be in there pitchin' at the park until well on into July. The three teams are the Pirates, captained by Doug Norton, the Little Giants, captained by Earl Walters, and Hornets, with Keith King as captain.

Recreational director Hal Newman informs us that a trophy is needed for the Midget Series and wonders if some local firm or merchant would like to have his name engraved on a mug. The two leading teams will play a best two-of-three series for the championship. Consult the sports calendar and drop out to the park to see these young lads play ball.

Teams are composed of:
Pirates — Doug Norton, Jim Kirkwood, Keith Scott, Bud Vary, Bob McGill, Pat Johnston, Frank Carter, Jack Baird, Frank Anderson, Don White, Bill Diggins, Dennis McCartney.

Little Giants — Earl Walters, Ron Denham, Terry Bludd, Bill McCormack, Bill Hewitt, Brock Bradley, Paul Barber, Jim Ford, Don Hewitt, Joe Louth, Bob Rogers, John Nodwell, Ben Lorrman.

OUCH! — GLEN WALLEPS SOFTBALL CHAMPS 19-3

The Glen softballers made an auspicious start in their first game in the Industrial Softball league last Friday when they walloped the Businessmen all over the lot and outsourced last year's champs 19 to 3. The Glen had two terrific innings, scoring seven runs in the second and nine in the third. Businessmen rallied and scored a run in the fifth and two more in the sixth to save a whitewashing, while the Glen coasted home on their early efforts.
