STEWARTTOWN

Congratulations to the following, who passed their Toronto Conservatory of Music exams at Guelph: Evalonne Smith, Grade 2 honours; Barbara Cunningham, Grade 2 first class honours; Donald Lawson, Grade 5 honours. All are pupils of Mrs. Mary Baly.

Requesting Women's Institute celebrated their thirty fifth anniversary last Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. H. P. Lawson's home. Mrs. Walter Lawson, Historical convener, read the minutes of the organization meeting on Mrs. Tracy's lawn 35 years ago, also the minutes and treasurer's report of the first general meeting. Several tables of euchre were played and social chats were enjoyed. A delicious lunch was served with a birthday cake lit by 35 candles suitably inscribed with birthday wishes for the occasion. Pictures were taken on the lawn of all present at the meeting, of all the present members of those who were present at the organization meeting 35 years ago, of presidents, past and present and of secretaries past and present. Mrs. Lawson Sr. was presented with a box of chocolates, she

REV. JOHN BOLGER OFFICIATES AT BROTHER'S WEDDING

On Saturday, June 27th, wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, the marriage took place in Holy Name Church, Toronto, of Catherine Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McDonald to Mr. Francis Wilfred Bolger son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Bolger. Rev. John Bolger, brother of the bridegroom, officiated, and Miss Helen Costello was at the organ. The wedding music was provided by the Leslie Bell Singers of which the bride is a member, directed by Dr. Leslie Bell, and Miss Jackie Guérard was soloist.

A portrait gown of white lace over satin with short train was worn by the bride. The deep yoke was of tulle. Her long veil was held with a coronet of the lace embroidered with seed pearls, and she carried white roses and gardenias. Her attendants wore bouffant frocks of mouseline de soie with picture hats. Miss Mary McDonald, maid of honour for her sister, chose canary yellow; Miss Anna McDonald, also a sister, was in Nile green, and Miss Marjory Nutson in strawberry pink. The flower girl, Joan Price, was frocked in white, with a halo of fresh flowers, and carried a nosegay. Mr. Joseph Bolger was groomsmen for his brother, and the ushers were Al Bolger, William and Joseph J. McDonald.

The reception was at the King Edward Hotel, and later the couple left on a wedding trip, the bride travelling in a lime green crepe frock with white accessories, fur neckpiece, and gardenia corsage. They will live in Toronto on their return, moving to the city with his parents about twelve years ago.

BRADLEY-DICKENSON WEDDING

A quiet wedding took place on Saturday, June 21st, at three o'clock in St. George's Anglican Church, Georgetown, when Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson officiated at the marriage of Christine Muriel Dickenson, daughter of Mrs. Dickenson and the late Mr. Wm. Dickenson, to William Earl Bradley, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bradley, Hornby.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Thomas, was dressed in a street length dress of light blue jersey, with white accessories, and carried a bouquet of red roses and white sweet peas.

Her attendant was the groom's sister, Miss Wilma Bradley, who wore a similar dress of pink jersey and white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and sweet peas.

The groom was attended by Mr. Douglass Pickett of Milton, Mr. John Dickenson and Mr. Roy Bradley, brothers of the bride and groom were ushers.

A reception followed at the bride's home, her mother receiving in a blue sheered dress, and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a rose dress and pink carnations.

For a honeymoon trip to Belleville, Arnprior and North Bay, the bride changed to a pearl grey suit and black accessories.

The couple, after their return will reside in Hornby.

Guests from out-of-town attended the wedding from Orangeville, Guelph, Toronto, Bellinford, Georgetown and Hornby.
