ASHGROVE

That grand rain on Sunday afternoon was just what our gardens and grain fields needed but it delayed haying operations for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bridgen attended the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. (Rev.) J. J. Ferguson at Meadowvale on July 1st.

Congratulations to Miss Doris Brownridge, who successfully passed her exams at Toronto Normal. We understand she has accepted a school in Trafalgar and wish her every success as a school-ma'am. Also congratulations to Frankie Wilson who passed his Entrance Exams.

Miss Enid Shore of Woodbridge and Mr. H. R. McDowell of Alliston spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hunter of the seventh line.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mills of Weston spent last week-end with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson.

R. H. M. TEMPLE, K.C.
Ending one of the longest legal careers on a Canadian railway, R. H. M. Temple, K.C., consulting counsel, Canadian National Railways, has retired.

We See This Week

THAT Miss Nora Kranz, who has been teaching this year at S. S. 2, Eramosa, has accepted a position as teacher at Dublin School for next term.

THAT Roy Barker, who formerly managed the Dominion Store here, is now at Caldwell's Food Store.

THAT the discontinuance of bus service to downtown Georgetown and the closing of the agency at Long's seemed to be the main topic of conversation in town over the week-end.

THAT Miss Freda Herbert flew to England last week for a visit with relatives over there.

THAT David Saxe has purchased Fred Baird's fine home on Factory Street, and will be moving in this summer.

THAT the machinery has arrived for Barrage's new cleaning plant and Mr. Barrage expects soon to have his plant in operation.

THAT Margaret Sargent won a mantle radio on a recent broadcast of the Make-Believe Ballroom over Toronto radio station CKEY.

THAT Constable James A. McNiven of Milton is in town for six weeks as a relieving officer while members of the Provincial Police detachment are on vacation.

Royal Bank Opens Branch Here On Monday

many branches of the bank including Napanee, Essex, Mt. Bridges, Thamesford, Melbourne, Woodbridge, Oshawa and branches in Hamilton and Toronto. He served for three years overseas with the RCAF and the RCAPC, returning home in March, 1946, and he has since been at the Oshawa branch. He is married to the former Elsie Ross of Oshawa and they have a baby daughter, Janie.

Mr. and Mrs. Grose are both interested in athletics and are members of the Oshawa Ski Club. He is eastern chairman of the Ontario Ski Zone and Mrs. Grose was financial chairman of the Oshawa YWCA. Mr. Grose is also a well-known baseball player and has played outfield with Intermediate "B" teams in Peterborough and Napanee and with Oshawa Seniors. They are members of the United Church.

Teller at the bank will be Arthur Reinhardt, whose home is in Hanover, and who comes here from the Brampton branch. He joined the bank in 1941, left it for three years to serve with the army and was 2 yrs. overseas. Mr. Reinhardt is the son of a retired Royal Bank manager, Harry R. Reinhardt and he has a brother working with the bank in Clifford. A member of the Church of England, he took a prominent part in amateur theatricals in Brampton and played the lead in "Charley's Aunt," presented by a Brampton drama group last winter.

Miss Wilma Chant, who will join the bank staff here, is a Brampton girl, daughter of Clifford W. Chant, who is herdsman for the ABC Farms.

Water Users Attention

Owing to the continued dry spell and the increased demand on our water supply, the Council is asking all water users to refrain from use of the hose during the daytime. It is suggested that the hose be used only between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock in the evening. Failing in this, more drastic means may have to be employed, in the interest of fire protection.
