The next public holiday will be Civic Holiday on Monday, August 4th.

For prompt electrical repairs to appliances and wiring call H. O. Bailey, Charles St., Phone 399W.

Mr. J. R. Williams of the Glen presented us with a lovely bouquet of sweet peas last week. They are growing in profusion in his garden this year and are quite the nicest we have ever seen.

IN MEMORIAM
HARRISON — In loving memory of a dear niece, Mrs. Fred Harrison, who died on July 28th, 1946. Too dearly loved. To ever be forgotten. Auntie

HARRISON — In fond memory of Mrs. Fred Harrison who passed away July 28th, 1946. Not now, but in the coming years, It may be in the better land. We'll read the meaning of our tears. Ah then dear Lord, we'll understand. —Cousins

HARRISON — In loving memory of Mrs. Fred Harrison, who passed away July 28th, 1946. Remembrance is a golden chain. Death tries to break, but all in vain; To have, to love, and then to part. Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. The years may wipe out many things. But this they wipe out never. The memory of those happy days. When we were all together. —Lovingly remembered by Mary Barker.

HARRISON — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Fred Harrison, who passed away July 28, 1946.

Oh what would I give to clasp your hand,
Your dear kind face to see,
Your loving smile, your welcome voice

That meant so much to me;
No one knows the silent heartache,
Only those who have such can tell
Of the grief that is born in silence
For the one I loved so well.
—Sadly missed by Husband and Children, Diane and Fred.

IN MEMORIAM

HARRISON — In loving memory of our sister, Mrs. Fred Harrison, who passed away July 28th, 1946. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. The world's weary troubles and trials are past; In silence she suffered, in patience she bore; Till God called her home to suffer no more. —Sadly missed by her sister and brother, Hazel and George.

HARRISON — In loving memory of our dear daughter, Mrs. Fred Harrison, who passed away July 28th, 1946. There's a face that is haunting us ever,
There's a voice that we're longing to hear,
There's a smile we'll remember for ever,
Though we try to forget every tear;
There's a sad but sweet remembrance
There's a memory fond and true,
There's a token of affection dear,
And heartache still for you. —Sadly missed by Mother and Father
