CONSTANCE DEANS WEDS R. G. MAITLAND

In Bloor Street United Church, at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, Rev. R. C. Todd, of Georgetown, united in marriage Miss Constance Elizabeth Deans, of 30 Lonsdale Rd., Toronto, and Mr. Ronald G. Maitland, of 84 Baby Point Rd., Toronto. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Deans of Georgetown, and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Maitland, of Toronto. The ceremony took place in the chapel of the church, which was decorated with gladioli. The bride was given in marriage by her father; wedding music was played by Mrs. Roy King, and the Lord's Prayer was sung by Miss Helen Dunlop. The bride's gown was of twilight blue crepe fashioned with a square neckline, panel front and hip-length peplum, edged with delicate blue lace. She wore an all-around head dress of sweetheart roses and stephanotis tied with ribbon at the back, and carried a semi-cascade of sweetheart roses, bouvardia and stephanotis. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Frances Deans of Georgetown, whose costume was of crushed strawberry faille with full gathered skirt. She wore a coronet headpiece of flowers, with a matching bouquet, a semi-cascade carried out in blue tones to correspond. The best man was the groom's brother, Mr. Mason K. Maitland, of New Toronto. The ushers were Messrs. Edward Beam and Douglas Haig, of Toronto. The bride's mother wore a beige crepe dress, with black accessories, and a corsage of tansman roses. The groom's mother wore a sky blue dress, with pearl accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The newly married couple left on their honeymoon after a reception at the Old Mill. The bride's travelling costume was a suit of gray French wool, with matching felt hat, red accessories and red coat. On their return from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Maitland will reside at 82 Morning-side Drive.
