

Mrs. William Louth Buried in Norval Cemetery

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. F. J. Dunlop, were held last Sunday for Mrs. William Louth who passed away on Friday, September 20th, in Seaforth at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Kaiser. She had made her home there for the past two years and had been in ill health for some time and bedfast for three months prior to her death.

Formerly Mary Smith, she was born at Campbellville in 1870, a daughter of the late James Smith and Rebecca Burtch. She spent most of her life in the Norval district, and had been an active member of Norval United Church. Predeceased by her husband in 1936, she leaves a family of seven children, Walter, Frederick and Wesley of Norval, Mrs. Charles Chesney (Gertrude) of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Jack Kaiser (Ethel) of Seaforth. One of a family of thirteen, Mrs. Louth also leaves three brothers and a sister, James W. Smith of Norval, John H. Smith of Stewarttown, Albert Smith of Hamilton and Mrs. Fred Gilkes (Lottie) of Dundalk. There are fourteen grandchildren. A grandson, James was killed with the RCAF overseas.

Palbearers were four nephews, Cecil Smith, Wesley Smith, Gordon Smith and Roy Gilkes and two grandsons, Bill and Bud Louth. Many beautiful floral tributes honoured the memory of the deceased. Interment was made in Hillcrest Cemetery, Norval.

Out-of-town friends attending the funeral came from Toronto, Dundalk, Brampton, Seaforth and Cleveland, Ohio.

Odeon Theatres Acquire Gregory Theatre Chain

Announcement was made last week of the acquisition of the Gregory Theatres in Georgetown, Acton and Oakville by Odeon Theatres of Canada Limited, the sale taking effect last Monday, September 15th.

Included in the transaction is the acquisition of a site in Oakville owned by Mr. Gregory on which the company is erecting a new 750 seat theatre and a covenant by Mr. Gregory to erect a new theatre in Acton on the lot he owns opposite the present theatre.

Russell Gregory is a well-known Ontario showman who has been in business for thirty-seven years in the three Halton towns. His son, Leslie, was also well-known in the theatre business in Hamilton and Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, who make their home in Oakville are retiring from the theatre business and the good wishes of their friends go with them. Starting with the Wonderful Theatre in Acton, Mr. Gregory added his theatres in Oakville and Georgetown later and for many years has provided us with motion picture entertainment, first in the building on Wesleyan Street which is now the Oddfellows Hall, and latterly in his fine building on Mill Street.

Norval W.I. Opens Fall Season

The opening fall meeting of the Norval Women's Institute was held on Tuesday evening, September 9th, at the home of Mrs. Wishart, with a good attendance. Mrs. Graydon Chester, the president, occupied the chair and the meeting opened with the Ode and Prayer. Roll Call was answered by "A Country and Its Principal Crop" and Mrs. O. Hunter gave current events. Mrs. W. Orham read the minutes and the financial report.

The topic "Agriculture" was prepared and given by Mrs. F. Fendley. Mrs. Patterson gave a paper on the growing of violets.

The hostess, Mrs. Wishart, Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Joseph Murray served refreshments and a social half-hour followed. The October meeting will be held Thursday, October 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Wilkinson.

ASHGROVE

Well! The Big Fair is over and we were glad to see such a grand crowd. The hall exhibits were splendid, also the live stock and horse racing were of the best. Congratulations to the Agricultural Society and Fair Board on their splendid efforts.

The September W.M.S. meeting was held last Tuesday afternoon in the basement with the President, Mrs. Frank Ruddell in charge. After the business was disposed of Mrs. W. Bird conducted the Devotional followed by Mrs. Thos. Gillen who introduced the new Study Book, "The Bible for all the World" which should create a genuine interest in the forthcoming studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell have returned home from a motor trip out West. They visited Brandon, Manitoba, Banff, Alberta and British Columbia and report a most delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and Marilyn spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jeffers in Toronto.

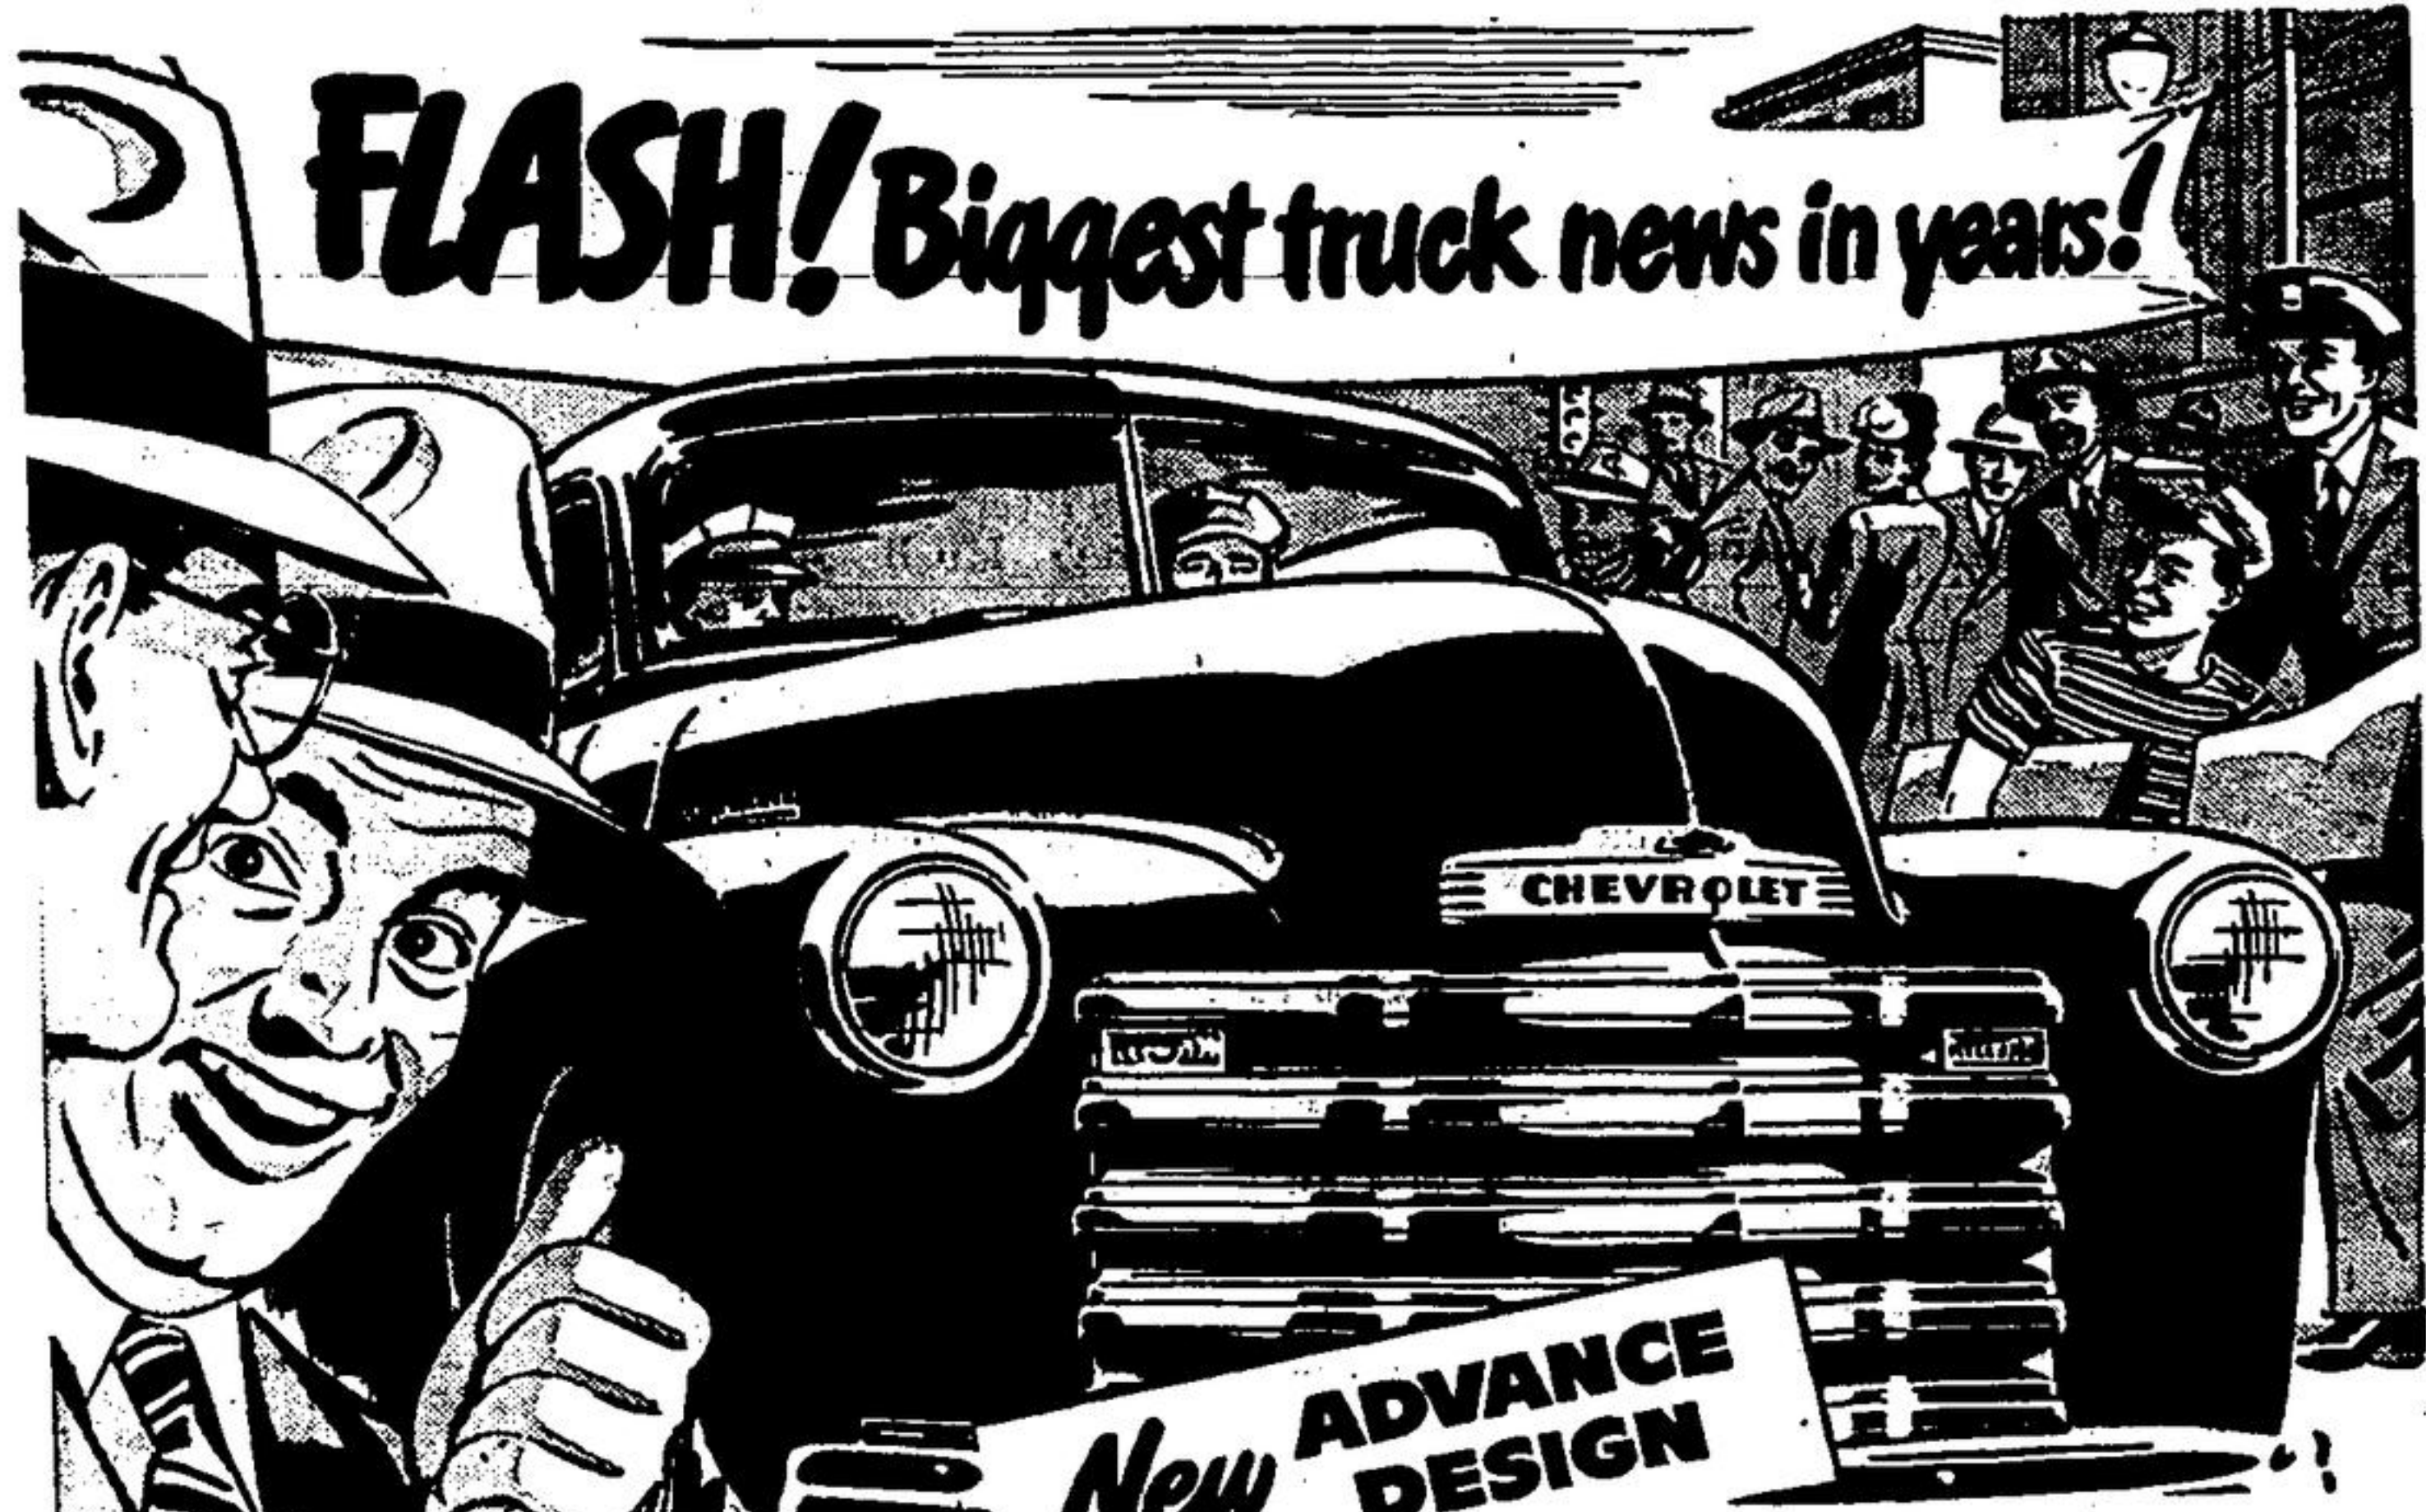

Miss June Graham of Toronto spent the week-end with Miss Viola Briden.

Little Carol Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mills of Milton is visiting her cousins Herbert and Billy Wilson.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Nurse is coming along nicely after her recent operation in Guelph General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dixon of Kapuskasing have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham, the latter accompanying them to Rochester for a few days last week.

Remember the Big Sports Day on Saturday next at the Park.
