

Le Roy Norton Weds
Brampton Girl

The Salvation Army Citadel, Brampton, was the setting for a pretty wedding on Saturday, September 6, when Isabel Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, Brampton, was united in marriage to LeRoy K. Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Norton, of Glen Williams, by Adl. Wm. Shaver. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white jersey gown, heart-shaped fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of red roses and stephanotis. She was assisted by two bridesmaids, Joan Hartley, who wore a turquoise blue taffeta gown and also carried a bouquet of roses and stephanotis, and her sister, Loreta Brown, who wore a pink taffeta gown and also carried a bouquet of roses and stephanotis. Little Carol Burrows who acted as flower girl, wore a yellow satin gown and carried sweetheart roses. Mr. Glen Scott, of Georgetown, acted as best man and Bill Smith of Brampton, and Gordon Elits, of Glen Williams were ushers. Lillian Brown, sister of the bride sang "I'll Walk Beside You" and "Because," accompanied at the organ by Robert Walker. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where Mrs. Brown received the guests wearing a black dress and a corsage of red roses, assisted by the groom's mother wearing a brown suit and a corsage of red roses. For travelling the bride chose a grey suit with black accessories and a corsage of roses. On their return from Buffalo the couple will reside in Glen Williams.

You will not want to miss the big Sports Meet here on Saturday afternoon, sponsored by the recreational Council. Plenty of track stars and High School champions will compete. Big 30-mile relay race for International Silver Cup.

September Meeting of Busy Bees W.I.

The September meeting of the Busy Bees Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Britton on Tuesday afternoon, September 8th, with a splendid attendance. Mrs. Alf Allen, the president, was in the chair and the meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode, followed by the prayer. A two-minute silence was observed for Mrs. J. E. Whielock and a prayer said for her husband and son so sadly bereaved. Roll call was answered by "My Favorite Flower." Mrs. Coxe gave the minutes of the last meeting and read the correspondence which included thanks from several ladies for fruit received while ill.

It was decided to order boxes of Christmas cards. A committee was chosen to arrange a corn roast at No. 7 School, the members being Mrs. Oscar Locker, Mrs. Arthur Davenport, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. McLean. Mrs. Coxe offered her home for the October meeting.

Mrs. Bud Fraser as guest speaker gave a splendid paper on Juvenile Delinquency. Mrs. McLean gave a humorous reading and Mrs. Davenport one of the life of Dr. Banting. Mrs. Britton conducted a contest "Queer Oats" which proved Mrs. Locker the winner.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Britton and her daughter, Mrs. Anderson, and a social hour was spent over the tea cups.

Funeral Service Here for Former Resident,
W. B. Shortill

A former resident of Georgetown, William Bennett Shortill passed away in Toronto on Sunday, September 7th, after a year's illness.
