101st Annual

Georgetown Fair

son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hancock, Heather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gear Hayes, all of Glen Williams.

In the 9 to 18 months class—Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Darby; Roger, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield; Elizabeth May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mileham, all of Georgetown; Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Huffman, St. Catharines; Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Robertson, Milton; Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Way, Mt. Dennis; Richard John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Britton, Campbellville; Brian Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elwood, Terra Cotta; William, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Donaldson, Glen Cross; Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oshojin, Hornby; Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Stamp; Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilman; Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hill, all of Glen Williams.

Mr. Nat. Guthrie, who has sponsored this show for many years at Georgetown fair, was on hand to present the prizes to the winners, and the judge was Dr. Walker Harding of Georgetown, assisted by Miss Featherston, R.N., of Guelph.

Another big highlight of the fair was the music provided by the Girls Pipe Band and the Lorne Scots Brass Band, who played at intervals during the afternoon. Stanger Shows played to an appreciative crowd during the afternoon, as the younger set took advantage of the rides and swings provided for their entertainment. The games and refreshments booths all had their places and everyone had a grand time.

And so another successful fair has passed into history, and the directors are looking forward to the 1948 event with a keen vision of trying to surpass if possible the record shows of the past two years. Georgetown fair is now obtaining a high place in the show world; let's start now to work harder than ever to keep it there.
