BING WINS JASPER TOTEM POLE TROPHY — A birdie three on the 36th green won for Bing Crosby a golf championship and possession of the famous Jasper Totem Pole Trophy. Off the green at the back in two, he chipped the ball into the cup to defeat Gordon K. Verley, of Victoria, B.C., in a spectacular finish witnessed by the largest gallery ever to follow a competition over the Jasper Park Lodge course. Bing is shown above, right, with Verley and the silver trophy. The Crowner set out the next day on a hunting trip for Grizzly and Big Horn Sheep along the northern boundary of Jasper National Park.

ANCIENT POTTERY FOUND

Pieces of pottery made by Lucanus and Mommus — potters of southern Gaul in the reign of Tiberius and Nero — were found in Canterbury England, during excavations off Burgate street.
