English Immigrant Buys Norval Grocery Store

Announcement is made this week of a business change at Norval, where Albert Hudson has purchased the grocery business established there a year and a half ago by Walter Fidler. Mr. Fidler has purchased a farm property known as the Pettigrew 50 from Harold Lyons and will return to farming. He is building a new house on the property which is located on No. 7 Highway.

The new store owner comes here from England. He has been in Canada since May, working on the B. H. Bull farm near Brampton. A farmer until twelve years ago, Mr. Hudson has conducted since then a similar business at Loughborough, Leicestershire. He is a veteran of the first war and a member of Toc-H. Mrs. Hudson and their daughter, Dorothy, aged 12, arrived from England on September 18 aboard the Aquitania, and their son, Aubrey, age 17, made the crossing by plane last week.
