LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor —
We the ministers of Norval and district churches want to thank through you the Rev. R. O. Todd of Georgetown for his letter in last week's Herald against an open Sunday for sports purposes.
We feel that God gave man six days to work and play and a seventh day for spiritual rest. The seventh day is man's day, but God has left it so that man can give it back by keeping it for a day of worship and praise to God. By keeping it a spiritual day and not a sports or recreational day we show our appreciation and love to our Creator who loved us while we were yet sinners and took our punishment in the death of His Son.
If man today feels he owes God nothing then there is no reason why he cannot have a Sunday for his own pleasure and sport. But surely this generation has not stooped to this level of ingratitude, for do we not owe God more than we can ever hope to repay?
Let us stop this foolish practice then of robbing God of his right to one day a week of our lives.

If we really need a sports day let us take another day in the week so that our Creator still has one day that man voluntarily offers to his God.
This generation does not need any more sport but we do need God.

Letter To the Editor
The Editor.
Dear Sir:

It is once again good to see the "Welcome" sign out for emigrants from the Old Land. Canada needs them. More so the Banner Province of Ontario, with its empty acres, its vast, virgin timberlands, and its busy cities.
It took the ingenious mind of Premier Drew of Ontario to set the pace for this new migration with his novel and daring air emigration scheme. Under this plan over seven thousand of the best of the Old Land's youth have registered for passage, and over one thousand have already arrived and are becoming rapidly settled. This plan is setting an example to other Dominions whose waste places cry out for settlement.

But Ontario is leading the van. Every time a silver sky ship touches down at Malton Airport outside Toronto Ontario, it adds at least forty new Canadians to the Dominion's twelve millions.
How different is this to what it was when I came to Ontario over forty-three years ago! No seven league boots for me, which would transport me over the Atlantic in less than twenty-four hours. It took me eight days to cross, and that in a vermin-ridden cattle boat. On landing in Ontario in the blackness of a cold March night, I was met by strangers who filled my hungry stomach with left-overs and handed me a farm job at eight dollars a month and keep for five o'clock the next day.
Farm work was hard work in those days. But it did me no harm. I had none of the amenities of this modern age. After almost three years on the land, I graduated in turn to bush worker, railroad construction hand, hod carrier, etc., etc. then newspaperman!
That was the acme of my desire. After thirty-five years, I am retired on a competence, with a home of my own, a family happily married, a nice garden in which to laze and dream of that far-off day when I shook the dust of the humdrum Lancashire textile town from my feet.
As I said before, what a contrast to now. Air emigrants to Ontario land after sixteen hours, are whisked by motor car to the gay city of Toronto and there handed a banquet and a job before they have had time to recover their breath. If they cannot make good after that, well...
I wonder what their pioneer forbears would say!

SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH

To the Editor of the Star:
Sir: A letter in the Star signed "W. J. H." dealing with the question of an open Sunday, suggests that there are a large number of people who are not religious, and do not attend church, but who at the same time are equally as good as those who do. It would seem to me that this is beside the point, and it would be a very sorry world without the religious influence, and, while I do not believe in any attempt to legislate the people into church attendance, I would like to ask those who do not attend or support any place of worship just what would happen if we all felt the same way. At a time of sorrow such as a death, the clergy are called upon to perform the ceremony of burial, and when a wedding or a christening are needed, the clergy again are asked to do what is necessary. But if these clergy and the church were not supported by the people, who would there be to take over these very necessary duties? It would seem to me, from some experience, that the ones who do least for the church are the very ones who at times of stress are the first to call the clergy as their right, and it is time that they woke up to the fact that if we felt we were too good to support the church or to attend its services, we would be in a very bad way when it came to marrying or christening, or even burial, because there would be no one to do the necessary services. It is time that we realized that the church should be supported by all, not only for what it stands for, but for the service that it does, instead of the way that it is at present, supported by the few, with the many asking for a service that it has not earned.

Brampton Beats Norval Pee-Wees In Semi-Finals

Brampton Pee Wees took a two-game lacrosse play-off series from Norval when they won the second game last Thursday by a 9-7 score to take the round 16-13. Norval had the score tied at seven all with three minutes to go, but faded in the closing seconds. The Pee Wees were the last remaining Norval team in the play-offs and their exit rings down the curtain on Norval lacrosse for this season.
Gordie Laidlaw chalked up four goals for Norval, Hamil had two and Cunningham one, with Fyfe getting an assist. Brampton scores were by Patton, S. Gibson, S. Thompson, Robinson, Scarlett and Res.

On Saturday at St. Catharines, Brampton won the Ontario Pee Wee championship when they won 14-6 in a sudden death game against St. Kilda.
Norval-Julian Reed, Peter Fendley, Gordie Laidlaw, George Fyfe, Jamie Cunningham, Harvey Hasell.

Brampton — J. Thompson, Patton, Bedford, McKibbin, Thompson, Gibson, Sheffield, Robinson, Scarlett, Res, Davis, Smith, Griffith, Letton.
