Georgetown Public School Retains Inter-School Trophy

Last Wednesday afternoon, the pupils from Milton, Acton and Georgetown public schools met in the Georgetown Park, where they competed in their second annual inter-school athletic meet. The weather was perfect for such a day, and the competition during the entire afternoon was exceptionally keen. Georgetown was successful in winning the trophy for the second consecutive year, and from the interest, effort, training, and good sportsmanship displayed, they well deserved it. Mr. Ireland of Georgetown, on behalf of the school boards of the three towns, presented the trophy to Ruth McNally, who represented the Georgetown school.

The summary of points was as follows: Acton 31, Milton, 36 and Georgetown 46.

Following the track and field events the Georgetown Girls' and the Georgetown Boys' softball teams played host to the Milton Girls' team and the Acton Boys' team.

Not satisfied with winning the trophy, the local school won both softball games. The Girls won from Milton 17 - 15, while the boys won from Acton 4 - 1. Good sportsmanship was exhibited by the pupils from all three towns.

John W. Hepburn Is Removed by Death

John W. Hepburn passed away at his home at Georgetown on Tuesday, October 7th, after a long illness.

Mr. Hepburn was born on the first concession Yarmouth Township, Elgin County 86 years ago, son of the late Robert and Susan Hepburn, pioneer settlers in that district. He farmed in Yarmouth until 1900 when he moved to British Columbia remaining there 10 years. He returned east and settled at Milton, later moving to Georgetown where he lived until his death.

Predeceased by his wife the late Ida Card in November, 1941, Mr. Hepburn is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Blanche Gordon, Toronto, four sons, Donald of England, Gordon and Thayer of Toronto and Russell of Georgetown, one sister, Mrs. L. C. Ponsford, St. Thomas and five grandchildren.

Funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. O. Cochrane from the McClure Funeral Home on Wednesday evening.

The remains were taken to St. Thomas where service was held on Thursday at the P. R. Williams and Son Funeral Home. Interment was in Union Cemetery. Pallbearers were six nephews, Robert and Mac Duffon, Russell Axford, Robert Hepburn, Ernest Hepburn and Morrison McEwan.

THE WEATHER

Mr. Editor:
The following summary shows that the high temperatures and fine days hang on with only one frost last week. I am sure everyone will not object to another week of the same.

After a vote of thanks to Sis. Hixon and her installing staff, Sis. Bradley, presented Sis. Hixon with a small gift and she replied in a few well-chosen words thanking the Lodge for the gift.

Other visitors were present from Toronto, Milton and Hamilton and after a few words from some of these Lodges was closed and all adjourned to the Banquet Hall for a delicious salad plate supper convened by the four group leaders. The tables were very prettily decorated with Fall flowers, colored leaves and fruit.

MACDONALD - GRAY WEDDING

Standards of white gladioli and mums decorated the chancel and altar of the church of St. Mary the Virgin, Toronto, for the marriage of Janet Alma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Gray to Thomas Fraser Macdonald of Georgetown, on Saturday afternoon September 20th.

Rev. Godfrey Gray, the bride's uncle performed the ceremony assisted by the Rev. Gordon Fern. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white slipper satin with a deep pointed yoke of Swiss lace and straight skirt falling in a train. Her finger-tip veil was caught by a satin crescent headress trimmed with lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias and baby mums. Mrs. Harold Wilson attended her sister as matron of honor, and Eleanor Macdonald and Betty Gattrell were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in fuchsia velvet with slight trains and matching halo headresses of velvet and ostrich plumes. They carried cascade bouquets of fuchsia, autumn flowers and roses. Little Lily Gray in French blue taffeta and bands of fuchsia fasteners was flower girl. She carried a basket of autumn flowers and was accompanied by Joseph Gray as page. Owens Macdonald was groomsmen for his brother and Eward Gray and Arthur McKane ushered. Miss Joan Brabant sang "A Wedding Prayer", during the signing of the register, and the choir of which the bride was a member sang the hymns, psalms, and responses. Mr. Charles H. Densen was at the organ. The reception was held at the home of the bride's sister where her mother, wearing rose crepe with black accessories and corsage of roses received the guests assisted by the groom's mother in blue crepe with grey accessories and corsage of roses. For travelling to the Atlantic Coast, the bride chose a cornflower blue suit with matching top coat, black accessories and corsage of autumn flowers. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm at Georgetown.

After a few jokes which we dug up from within the musty walls of old G.H.S. When finished reading them pick yourself up off the floor and bury them again.

Mr. Prouse — "Why don't you answer me?"
Jim Fallow — "I did shake my head."
Mr. P. — "Well, do you expect me to hear it rattle up here?"

Miss Wilson — "What are they doing in British Columbia to preserve the salmon?"
Butch Schenk — "Putting it in cans."

"Yes" said Al Spence, describing it afterwards. It was funny enough to make a jackass laugh. "I laughed

If people say things are going slow with them, a little more "push" will often start them moving faster.

GARAGE OPERATORS' MEET

President James Waunsley presided at the Oct. meeting of the Halton Branch of the Garage Operators Association held in the Odd Fellows Hall in Milton on Oct. 6th.

The secretary, Laurie Mannell presented a report of Branch activities taking place during the summer recess. Important correspondence was read and dealt with.

The treasurer's report was accepted and accounts paid.

Provincial Director Len McKinley gave a report on Head Office activities, outlining in particular the new gasoline schedules as set up under the Industrial Standards Act. He submitted a resume of the Provincial Directors meetings held during the summer and outlined the projects for the remainder of the year which were possible due to the increase of staff at Head Office.

The meeting went on record as favoring the idea that the regular monthly meeting should be confined to reports and brief discussions along with an outstanding educational feature beneficial to the entire Trade. The business of the Branch to be conducted at the Directors meeting.

Arrangements were made for a Directors meeting to formulate plans for the Annual Meeting and election of officers.

Mrs. C. Cochrane Entertains W.M.S. of Knox Church

Mrs. C. Cochrane invited the Women's Missionary Society of Knox Church to the manse last Wednesday afternoon for their annual Thank-Offering meeting. A goodly number of members and friends came out on the lovely October afternoon to enjoy the program. The worship service was ably taken by Mrs. Smethurst and Mrs. H. Norton of Limehouse and two solos "Come Ye Blessed" and "My Task" were beautifully sung by Mrs. F. Shortill, accompanied by Miss M. Young.

A splendid instructive address was given by Mrs. Carr, president of Toronto W. M. S. Presbyterial. Mrs. Carr is not only a very active worker on the Toronto executive but is well known for the work she does as a Social Worker in every day life.

In a very clear, concise way and in reference to many Bible characters she showed us how we should live in order to do the tasks the Church and the W.M.S. requires of us as members, that we are all missionaries, whether we intend it or not, for good or for evil, we may be a blot, or we may be a blessing but a blank we cannot be.

Offeratory prayer was given by Mrs. Cochrane and Mrs. M. Bird thanked those who had taken part, also Mrs. Cochrane for her home, Mrs. Carr closed the meeting with prayer, after which everyone enjoyed refreshments and a social hour.

Mrs. Jack McGibbon Wins Mother Parker Prize

Mrs. Jack McGibbon of Georgetown won a Rogers Majestic radio on the Mother Parker's radio program last Saturday night. Mrs. McGibbon's number was called during the program and she correctly identified the tune being played on the air.

THE MIXING BOWL

by Anne Allan
Hydro Home Economist
Hello Homemakers! Apples, queen of Canadian fruits, reign high in our estimation of deserts. There is scarcely a dish in which you cannot use apples and usually they are "never-fail" recipes. In spite of the fact that the old stand-bys, apple-sauce and apple pie, are always the family's favourites, there are indications that readers want to add new dishes to their repertoire.

TAKE A TIP
1. Apple sauce, smooth and clear may be combined with cooked rice and whipped cream. Chill and serve with a spoonful of red jelly.

2. Apple sauce is something different when jellied and served with custard or cream. Pour 2 cups of sauce through a sieve, then add to softened gelatine (one tablespoon gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water). Add a dash of lemon juice. Chill and when beginning to set, add a tablespoon of chopped nuts. Pour into wet moulds; chill and then unmould on pretty plates. Serve with cream or custard.

3. Baked apples are always popular. For something special: peel a third of the way down and fill cavity with mince-meat, then bake in moderate oven to prevent bursting of skin.

4. Have you tried apples stuffed with chopped prunes? First core and put a bit of butter, sugar and cinnamon in each cavity. Add chopped prunes and bake apples about 40 mins. Serve with boiled custard.

5. Then, too, Apple Dumplings with a thin coating of biscuit dough or pie pastry are a scrummy if you bake them at a high temperature — 425 degrees for 15 to 20 mins.

6. Apple Fancifully is the good old fashioned pudding. To make it fill a pudding dish with peeled and cored tart apples, then add one or two tablespoons water unless apples are very juicy. Sprinkle with sugar and season with nutmeg, top with baking powder biscuit dough. Bake in electric oven at 375 degrees for 30 minutes or with an oven coal for 45 minutes.

APPLE PIE
3 cups sliced apples; 1/2 cup sugar, one-eighth teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, grated rind 1/2 lemon, 1 tablespoon butter.

Line pie plates with paste. Turn in apples and sprinkle with sugar; salt, cinnamon, lemon juice and lemon rind. Dot with small bits of butter. Put on top crust pushing it gently towards the centre. Press edges together and trim. Bake in an electric oven 400 degrees F. for 50 minutes.

APPLE CHEESE AND CHERRY SALAD
4 tart apples, 12 maraschino cherries, 3 packages cream cheese, mayonnaise.

Peel apples and cut into small balls with French vegetable cutter. Form cream cheese into balls, making eight small balls from each nest. Garnish with maraschino cherries and mayonnaise. Serve additional mayonnaise.
