JUNIOR FARMERS WILL BE ON RADIO PROGRAM

A number of Junior farmers will appear on a radio broadcast over station CHML, Hamilton, on Saturday, November 29th, from 8.45 to 9.15 p.m. The group which will hold a round table discussion on the advantages of a young person taking up farming, includes Cr. H. Craig Reid, Gordon Leslie, George Pelletterio and Evelyn Pickering-Jamey Kean and Camoron Wilson are assisting with the script.

LORNE SCOTS BAND ENTERTAIN LADIES AT SOCIAL EVENING

Members of the Lorne Scots Band were hosts to their ladies on Friday evening at a chicken dinner and social evening in the Oddfellows Hall. After dinner, Bruce McKer of Milton, band president, acted as chairman, thanking the ladies who catered for the delicious meal and introducing several of the guests. Cr. Arthur Herbert spoke of the coming vote in December when citizens will be asked to approve a $1200 yearly grant to the band to help finance this fine organization.

Mayor Joseph Gibbons expressed the civic pride of citizens generally in having such a first-class musical group in the community, while Harold McClure outlined a five-year plan of the Lions Club to erect a bandstand and shell on the club lot beside the post office. Bandmaster Alf Perrott thanked the Lions for recognizing the need of a suitable bandstand here.

A program of games, arranged by Ernie Forgrave followed, including a game of musical chairs with Mrs. Harold Wheeler adjudged winner and a quiz contest conducted by Stan Fay of Milton. Dancing and cards ended a pleasant evening.

We See This Week

THAT Mrs. John Kennedy has accepted a position as tailoress at Barrager's Cleaners and Dyers and another addition to the staff is Mr. Joe Lavin of Toronto, who has had 28 years experience in the cleaning trade.

THAT hydro restrictions have put Main Street on its wartime basis and the absence of store window lighting is noticeable.

THAT Doug Woods has joined the staff at Georgetown Motors, local Ford and Monarch dealers.

THAT Dick Licata has finished painting and decorating his store front and is making repairs to his display sign.

THAT Mr. Garfield McGilvray, secretary of the Esqueving Agricultural Society, attended the dinner given by the President and directors of the Royal Winter Fair on Tuesday evening of this week, at which the Hon. Louis St. Laurent was the guest speaker.

Mrs. M. Bedell, Jean and Byron Higdon and Melville "Red" Taylor have returned home after a month's holiday in the States.
