ASHGROVE

Well! We certainly had a snow-storm over the week-end, which wasn't very welcome. You had better put 'em on now.

The W.M.S. auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Frank Wilson on November 11th with the President, Mrs. Frank Ruddell in the chair. The meeting opened with the hymn "O Master of the Walking World". Roll Call was answered with the letter "N". Mrs. Dick gave some Temperance items. Mrs. Walter Brownridge reported on the address given at the Thankoffering meeting in Georgetown. Mrs. Fred Ainsworth gave a very fine Devotional on the Bible, stressing how important and necessary it should be every day of our lives. Mrs. Clayton Wilson favored with the solo "Holy Bible, Book Divine." Mrs. John Bellbody gave the highlights of the sectional Rally held in the church in October followed by the Study Chapter taken by Mrs. Hector Bird from the book "Great is the Company" telling how the Bible was translated into English. The hostess served dainty refreshments.

We are glad to report that Mr. Leslie Giffen who has been a patient in Brampton Hospital is improving nicely. Leslie had the misfortune to get a splinter of steel in his leg.

The Women's Institute held a very successful euchre and dance in Norval Parish Hall last Friday night. First prize in euchre for the ladies went to Mrs. Wilfrid Bird and second to Mrs. Mac Alexander. The men's first prize to Stuart Miller and second to Russell Hepburn. Lunch and dancing completed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and Marilyn visited relatives in London and Aylmer a couple of days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wrigglesworth attended the funeral on Monday in Toronto of his aunt Mrs. Sadie Cameron, who was a one-time resident here.

We understand Donald McNabb has accepted a position as Hog Grader with the Canada Packers in Toronto.

The Young People's Society held their meeting Sunday evening in the basement of the church with Clayton Dick Jr. in charge.

Mrs. Dick Welch and children Barbara, Lynn and Beverley have returned to their home in Claybank, Saskatchewan, after a visit in town with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Kentner.

LIMEHOUSE

Rev. C. C. Cochrane conducted communion services at Limehouse on Sunday last, when five new members were received into the church.

On Sunday, Nov. 23, services will revert to 3 p.m. with Sunday School at 2 p.m. for the winter months.

Visitors with Mrs. Lane on Sunday included, Mr. and Mrs. Jax, Scott of Galt and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morrow and Elane of Toronto.

We hope that Mrs. Andrew Mino who has been under the doctor's care for the past week may be out again soon.

Mrs. R. McCall, in charge of Children's Dept. at Riverdale Presbyterian Church, Toronto, entertained the local children with motion pictures, songs, etc. when Mrs. Gishby arranged a hot dinner and program in Limehouse Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening for parents and children of the Mission Band.

Mrs. McCall also presented a certificate and life membership to Ross Norton and a seal to Neil Benton who had previously received his pin and certificate. A number of children were given Mission Band pins.

Dr. Padmanabhan of India, a student at O.A.C. was a visitor answering questions asked by Rev. C. C. Cochrane and others about conditions in his native land. This proved a most educational feature of the evening.

Confirmation Service
Held at Erin

Rt. Rev. L. W. B. Broughall, Bishop of Niagara, officiated at a confirmation service in All Saints Church, Erin, last Friday, when a class of seven were presented for confirmation by Archbishop W. G. O. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. David Saxe spent last week in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sinclair have moved into the house on Edith St. formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Saunders and family. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders are living in his mother's house on Durham Street and she has moved into the apartment above the garage which she has built beside the house.
