WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEET

The December meeting of the Georgetown Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. G. Bell, the president, Mrs. H. C. Bailey, in the chair.

The meeting opened with singing the Institute Carol followed by the Institute prayer. The roll call was responded to by naming a Christmas custom. It was suggested the roll call for the next meeting be in the form of a question box. Mrs. R. T. Paul read a fine poem on "The Institute at Blont" written by Joseph Garvey. Miss Marjorie Kentner favored with two splendid solos.

Christmas carols were sung by the members. Mrs. Fred Armstrong gave some very interesting items on preparing foods and decorating them for Christmas.

Two lucky draws were won by Mrs. Jack Williamson. An auction sale created a lot of fun and a goodly sum of money was raised to be spent on Christmas cheer for shut ins.

Mrs. W. Mellowell moved a vote of thanks to the hostess Mrs. W.

Bell and the Committee in charge. Mrs. E. Thompson, Mrs. H. Kentner, Mrs. F. Armstrong and Mrs. Cole.

The meeting closed with singing the National Anthem. Lunch was served by the Committee in charge.
