THE HUNTER'S CREED

He who hunts and kills not at all, May hope to hunt again next fall, But he who kills all that he can, Is neither sport nor gentleman.

TEST FOR A GLASS ROD

The December 5th issue of Toronto Star shows a picture of Major James E. Hahn of Toronto displaying a 51 lb. fresh sea run salmon caught at Harding, B.C.

This speaks well for the strength of the light glass bait casting rod used to land the fish after an 85 minute battle. Rods are also made for fly fishing from glass. Whether they will be as good or better than bamboo remains to be seen. Perhaps they will be on the market next spring.

FOX HUNTING

DR. R. T. PAUL with the aid of his thoroughbred hounds has bagged several fox so far this season. BILL McDOWELL has also relieved reddy of much conceit by bagging several. SID MORRIS is another hunter who is having much sport in the field in search of fox.

These hunters know reddy's runways, tricks and habits like a book and it might be said that they have as much sport without the gun as they do with it.

That's all for this week, so good luck until next.
