Bazaar and Euchre
Sponsored by
Norval Institute

Despite the bad weather conditions last Friday, Norval Women's Institute had good success with their annual bazaar at the Parish Hall and had substantial receipts from sales of home baking, candy and handcraft. Afternoon tea, with dainty coloured sandwiches and little cookies was served.

In the evening euchre was played prize winners being W. H. Clegg and Mrs. Frank Fendley with second prizes to Joseph Murray and Mrs. Joseph Hunter. A feature of the event was a lucky draw for a lovely hand quilted bed spread upon which the ladies had spent many an afternoon and evening session. Many tickets were sold in Georgetown, Brampton and the surrounding district. When the draw was made in the evening, Mr. Howard May of Brampton proved to be the winner.

GEORGETOWN

—Mr. MacKenzie of Hamilton held winning ticket No. 367 on the barrel of apples on which tickets had been sold by the St. George's W.A.

High School students had a holiday on Monday when the G.E.S. staff went to Weston Collegiate Institute for the day to observe teaching procedure.

Mrs. Wilbert Cleave and Mrs. Campbell Sinclair attended the funeral in Clinton last Thursday. Rev. Kenneth MacLean, a former minister of Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown.

To the Electors of Ward 3

Please accept my sincere thanks for the splendid support given to me at the polls on Monday last

During the coming year I shall renew my efforts to successfully serve all the citizens of the Town of Georgetown

Jas. Goodlet

Thank You -
Ward 3 Ratepayers

Your support at the polls on Monday was appreciated, and it is an honour to represent you on the 1948 Council.
