ASHGROVE

The December W.I. meeting was held last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Wrigglesworth with 17 ladies present and the president, Mrs. R. Cunningham in charge. Roll Call was answered by the members exchanging a gift not costing over 25 cents. Mrs. Horace Barnes gave a splendid motto on "Pleasant Hours fly fast." Mrs. Howard Wrigglesworth favoured with a vocal solo also Mrs. Thomas

Brownridge a piano solo. Everyone enjoyed Christmas Carol singing and the meeting closed with lunch and a social half hour. The Young People's Union held their annual banquet last Thursday evening in the Church basement. Twenty four persons sat down to prettily decorated tables in the Christmas colours and white candles after which toast were drunk to The King, The Church and the Y.P.U. Miss Jean Chester of Norval favoured with vocal solos. The guest speaker Mr. Howard Wrigglesworth of Georgetown delighted everyone with his presentation of Dickens' Christmas story of Scrooge and illustrated his talk with moving pictures. Rev. Fred Ainsworth conducted the installation of the officers for 1948 who are as follows:

- Honorary President — Rev. Fred Ainsworth
- Past President — Betty Ruddell
- President — Douglas Currie
- Vice President — Jessie Wingfield
- Sec'y. Treas. and Press — Floyd Brigden
- Pianist — John Bird
- Asst. Pianist — Gladys Ruddell
- Fellowship — Ismay Kean, George Ismond
- Missions — Doris Brownridge, Herb Wilson
- Citizenship — W. O. Brownridge, Charles Hunter
- Culture — Gordon Wingfield, Marion Currie
- Recreation — George Wilson, Clayton Dick, Betty Ruddell, Mae Wingfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and Marilyn were at Woodbridge on Sunday attending the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Blake. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. C. B. Dick in the passing of her mother Mrs. Horn last Thursday at Port Credit.

The choir held a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brownridge last Friday, December 12th when ten tables of progressive crokinole were played. First and second winners for the ladies were Mrs. Cliff Wrigglesworth and Mrs. Wilfred Bird and the winners for men were T. J. Brownridge and W. O. Brownridge. The children's prizes went to Barbara and Ralph Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wrigglesworth spent Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Carney and attended the christening of their little granddaughter, Doreen Isabel in Home Church at Alloa.

Valerie Nurse entertained several of her school friends on Tuesday, December 9th, on the occasion of her seventh birthday. Her guests included Joan Drake, Bernice Wilson, Barbara Cunningham, Marion and Evelyn Bird, Ann Barnes, Myrna Wilson and her teacher, Miss Ismay Kean.

HORNBY

Sympathy is extended to Mr. Norman Cantelon and family in the death of his mother.

The Men's Supper last week was enjoyed by all who attended. The winners at cards were Mrs. C. R. Dick of Westlake, Ohio, for ladies and Delbert Downs for men. The door prize went to Mrs. C. Pickett. After the supper dancing was enjoyed.

Looks as if congratulations and best wishes now are due: Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Neelands on the birth of a baby son, a brother for Carol and Donnie.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Leslie on the birth of a baby daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey on the birth of a baby daughter.

A welcome is extended to Mrs. Parker and sons to the community.

The euchre and dance held by the Women's Institute attracted a large crowd. This was the last one they are holding this year.

The Omagh hall team held a euchre and dance in the Orange Hall recently.

The United Church Sunday School Christmas party was held in the Orange Hall Saturday. Games were enjoyed by the children. The program included carols sung by the children; recitations by Joan Wrigglesworth, Marilyn May, Janice Spence, Doreen Howden, Norma Aselton and Danny Thompson; vocal solo by Ross Sinclair and piano duets by Wilma Sinclair and Marilyn Wrigglesworth. Rev. Fred Ainsworth told the Christmas story. After refreshments Santa arrived to distribute presents.

There was a time when we were never able to find Grandma's glasses. Now she leaves them right where she empties them.
