JACK SUDERMAN of JOHN DICK & SON

We See This Week

THAT Bruce Harley is building a new home on Ewing Street across from Ern Hyde's.

THAT Santa Claus was much in evidence last week-end with his appearance at three Church Christmas concerts on Friday; the Lions Tree Saturday afternoon and the Provincial mill party in the evening.

THAT two Gray Coach buses were marooned for four hours last Thursday between Norval and Georgetown when heavy winds filled the highway with snow.

THAT Acton has also lost their town clerk, C. F. Leatherland having resigned his position due to pressure of other business.

THAT Esqueping Township nomination meeting will move from its familiar location at Stewarttown to the Limchase Memorial Hall next Monday, due to alterations in progress at the Township Hall.

THAT Jim Coffell, who has worked as an electrician for the Wardlaw Electric has set up in business for himself, operating under the name Georgetown Electric.

THAT Andy Molozzi, a G.H.S. student is working after four and Saturday at the Maher Shoe Store.

THAT the former home of Mrs. Charles Watson on Queen Street has been converted into a duplex and the apartments are occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gummer and Mr. and Mrs. Al Grazely.

COTTAGE CHEESE

Cottage cheese is recommended by dietary authorities as a meat alternate. It is an ideal source of animal protein and makes a splendid addition to a meal. Weight for weight cottage cheese contains more protein than meat. It is rich in Vitamin B and, if made from whole milk, contains vitamin A as well.

Wed at Knox Presbyterian Church Manse

On Friday, December 12th, at Knox Presbyterian Church manse, Rev. C. C. Cochrane united in marriage Rhoda Louise Whitney, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Whitney and William Donald Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor.

The bride was attired in a tailored suit of brown gabardine with matching brown and blue accessories and wore a corsage of white roses. Her only attendant was Mrs. Wilmer Davidson of Acton, wearing a heavenly blue crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mr. Wilmer Davidson was groomsmen.

A reception was held for the immediate families at the home of the groom's parents where the mothers of bride and groom received, both wearing pale blue with corsages of chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney celebrated their 26th wedding anniversary along with the bride and groom.

The couple will take up residence at their home on the 8th Line.
