HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(b Vic and Joe

The students are now out on a well deserved sixteen-day parole from the Georgetown Reformatory (school that is). No doubt all the faithful students will remain indoors busily studying especially fourth and fifth forms who have the distinctive pleasure of wracking their brain (singular) over exams in February.

Friday being the last day of school for the year, the students showed their regret by throwing a Christmas Party. There was carol singing under the direction of W. E. Capps and each form provided an item of entertainment for the programme. We will now try to give an unbiased opinion of this entertainment.

1A boys put on a good comedy tumbling act but this came natural for them. 1B girls tried in vain to sing a few numbers. To put it concisely they smelt. Then under the direction of "Doodlebug" McBride, second form staged a radio program which was considered by everybody except Purdy and Abigail Carter to be pretty good. Some of third form recited a few humorous recitations. The less said the better. Next came fourth form who thrilled the audience with their singing of "The Too Fat Polka", "White Christmas" and "Home, On the Range" which was dedicated to Mr. Lambert. They were quite good but we noticed among the spectators that clothes pegs were the style. As we stated before we are completely unbiased but fifth form put on the best act which consisted of the ideal orchestra "Bobby Heinz and his 57 varieties. The first selection was "A Pretty Girl is like a Melody" and it was an excellent arrangement with all parts exceedingly well played. Then fifth form's quartet sang that famous Irish selection "Auld Lang Syne" in the true New Year's spirit. We wish to thank Mr. Lambert for the use of the bottles. The crowning achievement of this superb orchestra was "Jingle Bells" with Reed "Punk" Hunter beating it out solidly on the drums. Without any puns we can truthfully say it was a swell show.

Santa Claus refused to show up but the presents were given out anyway with Doug Alexander doubling for old St. Nick. (we couldn't tell the difference). Some of the gifts were quite distinctive and we hope Mr. Lambert will find his drum, bottle opener and corsets very useful. To add to the merry-making the kids were throwing confetti around but strangely enough it came in long rolls. At the conclusion of the party apples and oranges were given out. Would a few of you parents mind feeding your little monsters before they go to school as some acted like they had
