Strange Demonstration of Psychic Phenomina by John J. Weston. at Local Theatre

Having heard of mental telepathy, and being somewhat curious, I visited this theatre and was startled by this seer's revelations in his performance. Mr. Weston's assistants distributed blank slips of paper among the patrons, on which they wrote their questions. These slips of paper did not leave the spectators' possession.

Being dubious of this mentalist's ability I was amazed to hear him in a fast and direct manner call the name of the spectator and answer their acknowledged question, which astonished me as well as the rest of the audience.

After the performance I conversed with this strange personage, who modestly refrained from laying claim to supernatural powers, or being a fortune teller.

Mr. Weston was born in Toronto,

Canada, of English and Irish parentage, and is the fourth in a family of thirteen.

I asked him when he became aware of these extraordinary powers. He said, "My eldest sister discovered this gift I possess when I was six years of age, and I was able to locate lost articles and foretell future events in the family circle."

Up to the age of twelve, he appeared at social gatherings, etc., later leaving home and joining a circus, then on to the vaudeville circuit as a mentalist.

Mr. Weston will appear on the stage at the Roxy Theatre, Georgetown, as a sensational added attraction for 2 days only Wednesday and Thursday, January 7th, 8th. See — Hear — This world famous wizard.

A committee of W.I. ladies entertained community folk in the Hall on Friday evening. Pianists for the children's games included Miss Doris Harding and Neil Benton. Prizes were awarded youngest children present, Eleanor Karn and Joy Patterson and to winners of games.

Cartons of Christmas candles and oranges were distributed to the children and lunch served.

Mr. Jack Noble and the Karns took over for dancing with R. L. Davidson as floor manager. The event was well attended.

The Girls' Pipe Band held their annual chicken dinner and exchange of Christmas gifts in Limehouse Memorial Hall on December 17th. During the evening all enjoyed games. A few days previous the members of the Band performed for patients at Christie Street Hospital, Toronto. Four Limehouse girls are band members.
