The Churchwardens, H. Savings, W. F. Bradley, Mrs. D. W. Baxter, Mrs. W. G. O. Thompson, F. D. McNally, R. W. Prust.

The Rector was then asked to retire, and on his return, was informed that, owing to the increased cost of living, the Vestry would undertake to pay the Rectory coal-bill, telephone, and electricity. Archdeacon Thompson offered his most cordial thanks and appreciation for this most timely relief.

The usual motion, empowering the Churchwardens to conduct the Church's business with the banks, was passed, after which the Vestry adjourned, the Rector pronouncing the benediction.

Refreshments were then served by the Woman's Auxiliary.
