IN MEMORIAM
LE BAR—In loving memory of Melville Le Bar who passed away February 8th, 1947. He had a cheery smile, a pleasant way, A helping hand to all he knew, He was so kind, so generous and true; On earth he nobly did his best, Grant him, Jesus, heaven rest. Fondly remembered by his wife, formerly Myrtle Le Bar, and his sons, Alfred and Melville.

LE BAR—In loving memory of our dear son, Melville, who passed away February 8th, 1947. We do not need a special day To bring you to our mind, For the days we do not think of you Are very hard to find. If all this world were ours to give We'd give it, yes, and more, To see the face of you, dear Mel, Come smiling through the door. Sadly missed by his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Colman.

LE BAR—In loving memory of a dear grandson and nephew, Mel, who passed away February 8th, 1947. One year today dear Mel was called To his eternal rest; Gone where the angels sing so sweet, And taken where God knew best. We miss him here so very much, His presence oft seems nigh, But we all hope in heaven to meet Where no one says good-bye. Sadly missed by his grandmother and Aunt Sadie, Toronto.

GLEN WILLIAMS

The Annual Congregational meeting of the Glen Williams United Church was held in the basement of the church on Monday evening, January 12th. The meeting opened by singing of a hymn followed by prayer by Rev. F. R. Dunlop.

The report of the session was given by the minister. Financial reports of all departments were given showing all objectives met and the congregation in a sound financial condition. The Missionary and Maintenance report was given by Miss O. Logan.

Officers elected during the meeting were as follows:
Session—J. Addy, F. Oarney, N. Felker, R. Norton, Jno. Wheeler, C. Inglis.
Stewards—Wm. Schenk, Mrs. A. Prosswood, W. Hill, C. Allen, Whitston Wheeler and Miss O. Logan.
Treasurer—Mrs. A. Prosswood.
Envelope Secretary—Mrs. N. Felker.
Organist—Mrs. Jack Addy.
Missionary and Maintenance Secretary—Miss O. Logan.
Auditors—Jack Addy, Whitston Wheeler.

Record Secretary—Mrs. C. Barth. From the chair, the minister spoke in appreciation of the work of remodelling the parsonage which had been done during the year, and gave members a warm invitation to come and see the improvements.

At the close of the meeting, the ladies served refreshments.

STEWARTTOWN

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith on the birth of a baby daughter, a sister for Gail, Danny and David.

A shower was held last Friday evening in the school for Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Murray. Games were played and Mrs. Wm. Cromar gave a recitation. Miss Joan DeVries and Mrs. Ken Murray assisted in opening the gifts which were very useful and beautiful to a young married couple. Mrs. Francis Thompson played the piano for dancing and lunch was served. Good wishes to the recipients go with every gift.

The W.A. had a quilting meeting last week at Mrs. Bailey's home.

The World Day of Prayer meeting for this community will be held in St. John's Church, Friday, Feb. 12th at 3 p.m.

ANNUAL LIONS LADIES NIGHT AT LEGION HALL

Members of Georgetown Lions Club entertained their wives last Monday night at the annual Ladies Night which was held this year in the Legion Rooms. The Legion W.A. catered for a delicious chicken dinner and there was plenty of entertainment. Jack Gunting and Riley Brothour collaborated in a radio show, complete with singing commercials, with Don Barrager as radio engineer of station LFON.

Joe Nova, Milton actor/director, Pauline Norton, vocalist, and Ken Hurlston at the piano, provided musical numbers, and later in the evening Kid Baker and Co. took over with their cowboy show and played for dancing. This popular Kitchener group played thrice weekly over the Kitchener radio station and return to town next Wednesday for a show and dance in the Old Town Hall under the club's auspices.

Lion Chief Harold McClure was chairman at the dinner and welcomed visitors from clubs in Brampton, Ancaster, Dundas and Paris. District Governor Bill Phipps was present and presented a past president's pin to Ab Toat and a plaque to Ed McWhirter, oldest of the charter members. A toast to the ladies by Ab Toat was responded to by Mrs. R. Licata.

Several new members were added to the Retail Committee of the Board of Trade as the result of a meeting last Wednesday in the Oddfellows Hall. The meeting had been called to discuss reorganizing the committee into a more active group. Arthur Speight, Board of

Enlarge Board of Trade Retail Committee

Trade president opened the meeting and introduced Walter Biehn who led a round table discussion on things that a retail group could do. The committee, which will meet on the second Monday of each month is composed of Clarence Bain, chairman, Ross Thompson, Jack Watson, Walter Biehn, Graham Farnell, Jack Cotton, James Richardson, Harold McClure, David Saxe, Ernie Rawson, Fred Webb, Joseph Gibbons, Don Barrager, Paul Barber, Fred Schultz and Mrs. Clarence Buck.

During the evening, members stood in silence for two minutes in memory of two merchants, Clarence Buck and Clayton Bradley, who died last year. Coffee and sandwiches were served after the business meeting.
