MRS. W. J. BLAKE DIES AT DAUGHTER'S HOME

Mrs. William J. Blake, a life-long resident of the Woodbridge community died on Thursday, February 18th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Ashgrove. She succumbed to a stroke which she suffered the previous week. Mrs. Blake had made a remarkable recovery from a serious stroke three years ago.

Formerly Harriet Topper, she was born in Woodbridge on August 22, 1871, a daughter of the late Frank Topper and Harriet Robertson. She was a member of Woodbridge United Church. Surviving are her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Wilson and two sons, Sherman Blake municipal clerk-treasurer at Goderich and Roy Blake of the Woodbridge rural hydro office. The funeral on February 17th was held from her son's home with interment in Pine Ridge Cemetery.

Bearers were N. C. Jackman, Harvey Robertson, Cecil Shannon, Henry Hawman, Leonard Kanke and Garnet Topper.

It is a fine thing for people to praise their home town, and such talk enables a community to make further gains.

SHORT STORY

Men Are So Independent

By MARIA MORAVSKY

THE electric eye bell tinkled melodiously and the man walked before he saw her. She was standing in the shadowed corner, behind the counter piled with ties.

"What are you doing here?" he asked. "I came to buy a tie."

"What can I do for you?" she asked. "I want a tie."

"What size?" she asked. "I don't know."

"What color?" she asked. "I don't know."

"What material?" she asked. "I don't know."

"What price?" she asked. "I don't know."

LIONS DANCE WILL BE ST. PATS EVENT

The third annual St. Patrick's Dance of the Georgetown Lions Club will be bigger and better than ever. This year it is slated for Friday, March 19th, in the Rose Room and a top notch orchestra has been booked. Bill Howe and his 12-piece orchestra featuring Melita Day as vocalist come to Georgetown direct, from a season's engagement at Paradise Gardens, a swank dancing spot on the Guelph-Kitchener highway. Featured with the band are Johnny Boyd on piano and Ted Robinson on drums, both members of the old Johnny Boyd orchestra which most Georgetowners have danced to at Huttonville Park, and a Georgetown man, Reg Ryall, who used to play saxophones with the Modern Aires. The band specializes in Lombardo type sweet music with the odd hot specialty number.

The dance is being arranged by a committee composed of Jack Armstrong as chairman, Dick Licata, Ray Whitnee and Walter Biehn.

If it's a romantic ballad, folk ditty, or cabaret song in English or French, Gisele la Flerche sings it. She's the young Canadian chanteuse whose lighthearted singing to her own piano accompaniment is broadcast Saturdays on "Meet Gisele," at 7:00 p.m. from stations of the CBC Trans-Canada network.

FUN IS HIS BUSINESS
Bob Hope, radio and film comedian known affectionately to millions as "Ski-Snoot," whose rapid fire wit and exuberant spirits are featured on "The Bob Hope Show" Tuesday at 10:00 p.m. EST, over the CBC Dominion Network.

He was just like the men Gypsies see in the future of a girl.

she was nine months old. At first I hired a nurse, but she looked up and down the street "Say, how long can I park here?"

So he wanted to tell her his story. Miranda felt expanding warmth.

"I guess I'm a friend of the family," she said. "I'll be right back."

"I was toasting the gullies," she said. "I'll be right back."

"I'll be right back," she said. "I'll be right back."
