ELMER'S THREE STARS

FERGUS AT GEORGETOWN FEBRUARY 16th
The Georgetown boys have been winning all their games with such ease that it has hurt the attendance. However this game did draw a fairly good crowd.
But here is a question for the Area Fathers. When the game is over they put the whole crowd out through the front doors when there are shops at the side to relieve the pressure.
Now back to the game. Fergus has a much better team than the score indicates. They had just about as many shots on the net as

BRAVES BEHIND IN PLAY-OFFS

Tonight Brill's Braves play the second game in a goals to count series, in Acton, and it will be an uphill battle as they dropped the opener last Wednesday, 8-2.
It was a very poor display on the part of the Braves, as they were definitely off-colour. Prior to the game they had played heads-up hockey, but aside from centreman Hamilton, the rest of the team should have "stood in bed".
From the drop of the puck Acton showed their will to win and put on a marvellous display of hockey. Their speed and passing placed them high above the local lads, and unless our boys use their heads instead of fists tonight it will be Acton all the way.
By our estimation the star of the series was Tom Shaw of Acton. He played a bang-up game both ways and counted half of the Acton goals. This kid should go a long way.

This is by no means an excuse for the Braves' shellacking, but more to clarify any misunderstanding of any fans who condemned "bungy" Ward as referee. Roy acted as linesman only and had no authority whatsoever as referee. "Gouty" Gibbons was referee in charge, and if he had penalized the boys early when play became rough the several fights that ensued would never have happened. Visiting team supplies referee, so that Ward will officiate tonight.

We wish the Braves luck and that they may still overcome the lead, and if fate should choose otherwise we hope that Acton goes a long way in their bid for the Juvenile crown.

We understand at present, the winner of this series meets Woodbridge. This is the team that put the GRC All-Star entry out last week.

Georgetown but Rhodes the Georgetown goalie was tops therefore he gets 1st star.

Second star goes to Nick Ferri for his best effort of the season. He also got three goals. There was no one on the Fergus line up who stood out, therefore we are giving the 3rd star to Storey who made several scoring points and set up several nice plays.

Honorable mention should go to Martin and Murdoch for good game efforts. Murdoch took quite a ride from his former team mates.

To referee Braithwaite and Ferguson we offer our congratulations on handling a hotly contested game in a very capable manner. It is hoped they come back to Georgetown as their refereeing is tops.
