Halton Music Festival At Milton This Year
 At a meeting of Monday night, officers of the Halton Music Festival Association set May 13-14 as the dates for the annual festival, which this year will be held in Milton. Recreational Director Hal Newman represented Georgetown at the meeting. Major McCool of McMaster University will be adjudicator. Township semi-finals will be held on April 22-23 in Nelson and Trafalgar and on April 23 in Nassagaweya and Esqueaux.

We See This Week

THAT the new lights have been installed in Georgetown United Church and make a decided improvement to the church interior.

THAT Sport Motor Sales has moved to its new location at the Guelph and Queen Street corner, with Mr. and Mrs. Art Scott and family occupying the apartment above the new building.

THAT Darrell Dawson has joined the local Post-Office staff.

THAT the new drop letter post boxes have been placed around town.

THAT the new business location in town for the insurance and accounting office of Mr. Mill Street, opened by Howard Gruffy and Mrs. Ethel Brown.

THAT Art Scott is up and around again after a bout with the measles, which laid him up for a few weeks.

THAT the next big semi-formal in town is the 3rd annual St. Patrick's dance of the Georgetown Lions Club in the Rose Room of March 19th.

THAT the hydro black-out may spread to Georgetown and local consumers are warned to conserve as much power as possible in the emergency.

THAT Mrs. Floyd Vary is to be commended on her action during the Main Street fire recently. She hurried to the phone office and telephoned all merchants in the building adjacent to the fire.

ASHGROVE

It snowed, it blew, it lightened and then it rained but that didn't frighten the large crowd who attended the very successful W.L. euchre and dance last Friday evening at the 27th in Norval Parish Hall. Thirty-seven tables of euchre were played and the first prize for ladies went to Mrs. Copeland of Meadvale and the gents, Tom Bousfield of Milton. Lunch and dancing to May's orchestra concluded the evening.

Those who braved the snowy roads on Sunday evening enjoyed the wonderful religious drama presented by the Halton Presbytery Young People directed by Rev. J. B. Moore of Waterdown entitled "Simon the Leper," in four scenes. Each actor took his or her part well and the costumes as worn in Christ's time added so much to the play. The beautiful solos by Miss Laura Chapel of Rock Chapel "Bless This House," "Stranger of Galilee" and "Jerusalem the Holy City" were so appropriate with the drama. Our thanks to Miss Ismay-Kean for securing these young folks to come and make such a wonderful evening.

Visitors were noticed from Waterdown, Rock Chapel, Ballinfad, Bethel and Hornby.

 The Herald, Georgetown, Ont.

Dear Sirs:
 The contract covering our 1948 advertising with your publication has been received and we look forward to another year of pleasant business relations.

Salada Tea sales for 1947 showed a substantial increase for the third successive year, the total being almost DOUBLE the average annual sales from 1935 to 1939. As we have said many times before, we attribute a great deal of the credit for this amazing growth to the high quality of our tea coupled with a newspaper advertising program which continuously maintained and built our name.

Please accept our thanks for your part as a newspaper publisher in bringing Salada Tea so effectively to the attention of the buying public in 1947, and all our best wishes for the new year.

Yours truly,
 Salada Tea Co. of Canada

STEWARTTOWN

Congratulations and birthday wishes to Betty Ann Henderson and Mary Lawson, both on Tuesday. Betty Ann is 10 and Mary 4.

The W.L. met in the school to quit last Wednesday. The service on Sunday in the church is at 9:30 a.m. and Sunday School at 10:30.

Those who attended the Ashgrove W.L. euchre last Friday at Norval had quite a time getting home in the snowstorm.

There are two children's hospitals in China to care for 200,000,000 children. The Canadian Appeals for Children seeks to better that record. Send your donation NOW.

When a fella loses his shirt...

That's when a man is really down. A fellow risks everything else before he parts with his shirt. That goes last. He values it too much.

The expression lose your shirt is used for good reasons. A good cotton shirt is something to cherish. The same amount of money could buy nothing of similar quality.

That applies also to cotton bed sheets, handkerchiefs, gowns, and scores of other items of daily use that are made of cotton. Cotton with its freshness, its washability, its resistance to sun and heat and its durability gives top value for your money.

You can bet your shirt on that!

True reports on the works of the Red Cross by leading Canadian writers

The case of the 7 strangers

by Claire Wallace

There is a man in Canada who has the blood of seven total strangers in his veins. He doesn't. Without it, he would be dead.

Two years ago he was seriously injured in a crash. He received desperate head injuries, and a delicate operation was imperative. But shock and loss of blood had so weakened him that he couldn't have survived one. It is seven strangers had not stepped in.

They were Canadian men and women who had each given a blood donation to the Canadian Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service. When the doctors called for blood to save the life of the accident victim, it was the blood of those seven which pulled him through.

"Were you one of them?" Today, he is a healthy, happy, useful citizen of Victoria, British Columbia. The only thing that makes him different from the average man is a rather searching look that sometimes comes into his eyes as he walks along the street. For he often thinks of the seven who saved his life and wonders who they are. As he looks into a stranger's face, he silently asks: "Were you one of them? If so, I thank you from my heart."

Similarly, the mother who gave birth to twins and would have died except for blood transfusions... the baby so precious at birth he could be kept alive only by donated blood... the old all those who owe their lives to blood transfusions say: "Thanks, unknown friend."

Free blood for Canadian hospitals. The Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service plans, as soon as possible, to extend whole blood and plasma free to all patients needing it, in hospitals across Canada. Already, two provinces, British Columbia and Alberta, provide this life-saving service. Last year, Alberta and British Columbia distributed 21,044 bottles of whole blood and 2,361 bottles of plasma, resulting in the saving of many lives.

But it takes money as well as blood to save these lives. Remember this, as the Canadian Red Cross appeals to you now for funds. Give generously. A life may depend upon your donation.

Red Cross Services include: Blood Transfusion, Outpost Hospitals, Aid to Sick and Disabled Veterans, Treatment for Unemployed, Unemployed Relief, National Services, Home Nursing, Convalescent, Swimming and Water Safety, etc.

The work of mercy never ends... Give generously to the CANADIAN RED CROSS
