Robert Gollop Was Well-Known Hotel Operator

Well-known throughout Ontario as a hotel proprietor, Robert P. (Bob) Gollop, passed away in Toronto General Hospital on Monday, March 8th, in his 79th year. Born in Norval, he was a son of the late Eli W. Gollop and Jane Robertson and married the former Annie Garbutt fifty years ago. Mr. Gollop conducted a barber shop in the McGibbon Block and was a member of Georgetown Band. Three years later, they moved to Brampton, where he also operated a barber shop and played in the Brampton Band. Moving to Peterborough, he was proprietor there of the Snowden House and later the Grand Hotel, from 1909 to 1920.

Moving to Toronto he operated a cigar store on Pape Avenue for a year, then purchased the Royal Hotel in Guelph which he operated for five years. For several years he managed the Lakeview Inn, a summer hotel at Port Elgin. With his son, Harold, he owned and operated the International Hotel at Gananoque. He had resided in Norval since his retirement, where he was a member of St. Paul's Church of England.

He is survived by his wife and one son, Harold, two sisters, Mrs. Della Webster, Norval and Mrs. James Black, Los Angeles, California, and one brother, George, of Norval. His older son Roy was drowned at Eldorado forty years ago. Rev. J. E. Maxwell conducted the funeral service on Thursday from the McKillop Funeral Home, Brampton. Milton Won Play-off Game 6-3 Last Week

GAME PLAYED UNDER PROTEST — LATER THROWN OUT

It is "old stuff" now, so we are not going into any lengthy write-up on the Milton-Georgetown play-off here last Wednesday. From the drop of the puck, the game was played under protest, as Milton were using at least two ineligible players. The County Towners were successful in winning the first game of the two-out-of-three series in their own hallowed by a 7-6 score, and on Wednesday night again played superb hockey to win the second game 6-3. This on the surface eliminated the home team; but their protest to the OHA over the Milton imports, was upheld and the game was thrown out, to be replayed here last night.

Going back to the previous Wednesday game, the Milton team with the addition of these players, certainly put on the show and won the game hands down. Their team seemed to be in better condition than the local boys, and only once during the contest did the Papermakers press the attack. This came when they tied the round, but were unable to hold off the last period attack.

A feature of the game, if you can call it that was the misconduct and later match penalty handed out to Melanson of Milton in the second period for losing his head and showing his disgust at Referee Jack McEachern's decision. Another incident which shook the local supporters was Milton's first tally which came after 13 seconds of play.

Children's Aid Superintendent Speaks To Norval W.I.

Frank Thompson of Milton, superintendent of Halton Children's Aid Society, was guest speaker at the March meeting of Norval Women's Institute and outlined the child welfare work being done in the County.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Nels Robinson with the President, Mrs. Graydon Chester, occupying the chair. Mrs. W. Graham read the minutes and financial report. It was noted that the Wear-Ever Brush demonstration held at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Cleave in January netted a nice sum, as well as the euchre held in the Parish Hall last month for the Canadian Appeal for Children. Donations to be made to Norval Public School by the Institute this year include a radio, hot plate and serving dishes, volley-ball and equipment for the household science classes.

A splendid program consisted of vocal solos by Miss Jean Chester accompanied by Mrs. Oliver Hunter, and a reading by Mrs. Wiehart. The hostess was assisted in serving lunch by Mrs. Lotie Cleave and Mrs. Frank Fendley.
