ASHGROVE

Well! According to the calendar Spring is officially here and it certainly felt like it over the week-end. Robins were chirping from all directions and our snow is nearly all gone.

The Young People's Union held their Citizenship meeting on Sunday evening at the home of George and Frankie Wilson. Ward Brownridge had charge of the topic.

Next Sunday will be Easter. Rev. Fred Ainsworth will speak on "The Resurrection", and the choir will have special numbers.

Easter Glories, Easter Stories,
Waxen lilies bend and sway,
Come to tell us, Joy befell us
On that far off Easter Day.

Dark the tomb and sealed securely
All the light of life had gone.
Angels o'er us sing glad chorus
Now is rolled away the stone.

Voices singing, lilies bringing,
Incense — carols, sweet and clear,
Tell the story of the Glory,
Joy to all — the Christ is here.

He is risen, He is risen
Empty is the tomb today.
Death is vanquished, sing Hosannah;
Christ shall live and reign alway.

ELDERS INDUCTED AT NORVAL

In a joint service at Norval Presbyterian church last Tuesday at 2 o'clock, three new elders who had been elected from each of the Norval and Union Presbyterian congregation, was inducted in an impressive service. New members of the eight-man Session at Norval are Craig McClure, William McClure, Malcolm McNabb. Other members are Robert Reid, Lester Brown, Albert Hunter, Andrew Giffen and Arthur McClure. Union Church has a six-man Session, new members being Clarence Anderson, Wilfrid Leslie and LaVerne Thompson, and old members George H. Leslie, Andrew McDonald and James McKane, Sr.

Rev. William Weir of Brampton preached the sermon at the service and Rev. C. C. Cochrane of Georgetown addressed the elders-elect. Rev. J. L. Self, minister of the churches, was moderator. Miss Jean Chester contributed vocal solos to the service, which was followed by a fellowship hour when ladies of the congregation served refreshments.

ST. ALBAN'S EASTER SERVICE

The service at St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams, on Easter Monday will be the regular Evensong with which everyone is familiar. There will be the customary Easter Psalms and hymns in which the the congregation can join with the boys' choir. In addition, the choristers under the leadership of Mr. Densem will sing the anthem "This Joyful Eastertide." This is a two part arrangement of an old Dutch melody. One verse of a Bach Chorale set to the words "O Light of Life, O Saviour Dear" will close the service after the Blessing. The Rev. Gordon Hern, M.A., Rector of St. Mary the Virgin who will preach the sermon is no stranger to Glen Williams, as he has visited St. Alban's several times in past years.

ACTON IN SECOND-ROUND PLAY-OFFS

Group champions of this district, the Acton hockey team has already tucked Port Dalhousie under their belts in the play-downs and on Monday beat Port Dover 4-3 in the second round of the playoffs. The return match is being played in the new rink at Hespeler this Thursday.
