

They Gave Hornets a Scare

Underdogs in the G.R.C. Hantam finals, Gordie King's Reds almost upset the apple cart with an early two goal lead against Norval Hornets, but couldn't keep up the winning pace and lost the game 5-2. In league play, Reds won 2, tied 3 and lost 3. Standing left to right: Paul MacKenzie, Bill Penson, Ross McGill, Gordie King (coach), Jack Handy, Terry McGill, John Doherty, Peter Lewis; kneeling, Gerry

LIMEHOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. F. Karp and Eleanor spent the week-end at London. Mr. Blackmore of Toronto was student teacher with Mrs. Barber at S. B. No. 16 last week.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Manser and children recently returned from Scotland visited the Karns a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Spiter and family of Breslau were Sunday visitors with the A. Spitzers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Greenless and children visited the Bentons on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Noble and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meredith visited Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davidson on Sunday.

A group of W.I. ladies catered for the annual banquet of the Georgetown I.O.G.E. on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fuller of Erin visited the Mulders on Sunday.

TWO FIRE CALLS LAST WEEK

Firemen were called twice during the past week. On Thursday afternoon they were called to the Glen Road to extinguish a bonfire which high wind threatened to spread. This morning, they answered a call to the Golden Gate Cafe where a burned-out motor caused smoke. No damage was reported for either call.

WARD BROWNRIDGE AND BETTY RUDELL WED

At Fairview Farm, Ashgrove, on Saturday, April 10th, the wedding was solemnized of Elizabeth June Ruddell, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Ruddell and James Ward Brownridge, son of Mr. Thomas J. Brownridge. Rev. Fred Ainsworth officiated, and the bride's aunt, Miss Olive Ruddell, played the wedding music.

The bride was gowned in white satin, with full skirt with bustle effect and a short train. Her long embroidered veil fell from a white velvet coronet. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses. Mrs. R. Hartley Anderson of Toronto was her sister's matron of honour, wearing a floor length gown of white lace and carrying a nosegay of pink roses. Mr. Douglas Currie was groomsmen.

At a reception which followed, the bride's mother received wearing a black and turquoise gown with red rose corsage. Mrs. Thomas J. Brownridge assisted, wearing brown printed silk jersey and corsage of pink roses. The dinner table and wedding room were decorated with bouquets of pink and white snapdragons. Girl friends of the bride served the wedding supper and following a short toast list, the bride changed to a travelling ensemble of navy blue with white accessories. Following an eastern honeymoon trip, the couple will reside on the Brownridge home-stead.

FIFTY-FIFTY CLUB

For last Wednesday's meeting the executive planned a theatre party and the members met at the show. Afterwards the club went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vern McCumber for lunch.

In keeping with the traditions of the club a cup and saucer was presented to Rev. and Mrs. Colin Todd who will be leaving shortly. Then Vern McCumber presented Mr. Todd with something all knew he wanted very much—a new car. It was a custom built Canada model in red plastic.

The president then wished Mr. and Mrs. Todd the best of luck in their new charge and extended most sincere thanks for their part in helping to organize and build the club. Mrs. Graham Farnell presented them both with a beaten aluminum tray on behalf of the club.

The flowery committee's term of office was completed, and Mr. and Mrs. Vern McCumber were elected convenors of this committee for the coming year.

The club will journey to Acton tonight to join with that club in their meeting.
