Mackenzie News

Since it is a bit difficult for you to see us — Draper Street looks as if it had been the trial ground for A-bombs — we thought we would try to keep you up-to-date on the building situation.

Soon we'll be able to think of other things than hockey and this might be the year to carry out that post-war plan of home improvement. There are still a few critical items, but material is getting much freer.
We have some Insul-brick siding on hand. This has been scarce and probably will be again. You could put on this siding yourself with the help of a pal, or perhaps your wife would hold one end of the sheet, while you hit your fingers with the hammer.

To get back to Hockey again—what a grand winter we've had.
Our boys are to be congratulated on winning the Intermediate "A" title and if we only had Television to see what they are doing at St. Joseph d'Alma against the Castors our season would be complete.

Will see you Sunday on the way to Church when we bid farewell to two of our citizens, Rev. R. C. Todd, and Rev. C.
C. Cochrane who are leaving Georgetown soon for larger fields.
