HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Vic and Jo
Last Friday morning the annual inspection of the school's cadet corps took place. It threatened to rain but managed to clear up (dog-gone it) in time for the corps to be inspected by Capt. Hart. There was the usual ceremonial drill with every one having two left feet, plus a precision squad, signal work by a few first formers, and finally the girls put on a P.T. show. The report of the inspection is best shown by those who saw it. All are walking around holding their noses. The following is a list of the officers and N.C.O.'s who managed to survive inspection.
C.O. Capt. Doug Latimer
2 Lt. Lt. Bob Aldy
1st. Reed Hunter, Henk De Vries, Kay Thompson, Jessie Alexander.

C.S.M. Ken Mendham
Sgt. Jack Beaumont, Keith Thompson, Kay Bingham, Betty Gunn.

The big Cadet Formal takes place tomorrow night Thursday the 22nd. There has been a slight change in plan for the evening. Originally Ted William was scheduled to play but due to some unforeseen circumstances he cannot come. In his place will be Bob Martin and nine fugitives from a boiler factory. (We have it on good authority that they are a well organized). Although this is advertised as a formal dance that does not mean that girls without evening dresses can't come. Come in the best best thing. If you boys are too bashful to ask a girl or to put it more plainly, just haven't got the money come by yourself. To quote an old idiom "The More the merrier". Cookies and punch will be served. (I mean). Let's make this dance the best ever.

The following evening, Friday, the 23rd the Glee Club will move down to Brampton to engage in a little friendly competition for singing honours. There is a little more competition this year than in previous years. We do not know as yet how the Glee Club is to go down but most assuredly they will not walk. (We hear they are to ride down on their bicycles). The choir has been under the able direction of Mr. W. E. Capps. We give our best luck to the Glee Club, soloists, duetists, and other participants and sincerely hope they all win.
