Ernest Morgan, who will produce and direct the CBC's broadcasts of the 13 Gilbert and Sullivan operettas which are to be heard on the Dominion network beginning on Tuesday, May 3. As a producer of CBC musical programs, Mr. Morgan has directed numerous broadcasts on CBC domestic networks, including Wednesday Night features and programs of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra. He recently added to his work the duties of CBC International Service representative in Toronto and as such is responsible for producing many programs for short-wave broadcasts.

LIMEHOUSE

(Intended for last week)
A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Miss Ivons last Friday, when a number of the Limehouse congregation gathered for a social hour with Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Cochrane prior to their removal to Montreal.
After a short program, in which Mrs. Jack Roughley and Sandra Scott took part, chairman A. C. Patterson called Mr. and Mrs. Cochrane to the fore. When Gordon Price had read a short address, Andrew Mino, on behalf of the congregation presented them with a sum of money.

Both suitably replied thanking all concerned for the good wishes for their future and regrets at parting that the gift conveyed and that Limehouse would always be fondly remembered.

The ladies served lunch at the close.

At a box social sponsored by the Limehouse Hall board a week or so ago, Mrs. F. T. C. Brown won first prize for the best decorated box and Mrs. May and Miss May followed with second and third. Mr. Frank Petch auctioned the boxes and May's Orchestra took charge for dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Mulder spent Sunday with the Bruyns of Weston. Mr. and Mrs. John Glynn attended the Cooper-Brownlee wedding at Woodbridge on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Switzer of Norval visited Mr. and Mrs. Ted

Brown on Sunday.

Miss Helen Shelbourne was a guest at the Cox-Addsett wedding at Mimosa last Thursday.

Rev. C. C. Cochrane held Sacrament of Baptism at Limehouse Presbyterian Church last Sunday when the following infants were offered for baptism: Mollie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McVey; Linda Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Price, and Robert Leslie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick.

A well-attended luncheon and euchre was held at the Hall last Thursday, convened by Madeline Ellerby, Miller and Sanford. Prizes were won as follows: high euchre, Mrs. Ted Appleyard and Mrs. Bob Williams; low euchre, Mrs. Geo. Leslie, Mrs. L. DeVries; lucky chair, Mrs. Cromar; nearest birth day, Mrs. Angus Lawson.
Mrs. Reamsbottom of Toronto, recently returned from California has been spending a few days with the Posters and Miss Reamsbottom.
