A resident of Georgetown since last summer, F. William Johnson died suddenly at his home here on Saturday, May 15th. Mr. Johnson had moved here from Halifax after his retirement as maritime manager of the Northern Electric Company, purchasing William McNally's house on Edith Street.

Born in England 70 years ago, he had been a member of the Northern Electric organization for 37 years, first serving with the firm in Montreal, Calgary and Toronto. Enlisting from Toronto with the 180 Sportsmans Battalion, he served overseas as a field paymaster in the first Great War. After the war he was in publicity work with the firm in Montreal before going to Halifax. He was prominent in Halifax community life and was a past president of Halifax Rotary Club, past president of the Nova Scotia Kennel Club, member of St. Andrew's Masonic Lodge, honorary member of the Supreme Council of the A.N. and A.S.R. and life member of the Telephone Pioneers of America (Acadian Chapter). He was president of the Halifax Curling Club during the war. He was a member of the Georgetown United Church.

Mr. Johnson is survived by his wife, the former Ena Pearson of Acton, one daughter, Norma, wife of Wing Cmdr. W. H. Stapley of Ottawa, and a granddaughter, Pamela.

Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson conducted the funeral service on Monday from the McClure Funeral Home with interment being made in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. Pall-bearers were James Evans, James Goodlet, E. J. Hassard of Acton, Sam Mackenzie, Mowat Moore of Ballinafad and E. B. Swackhamer.

Mackenzie News

Well, Saturday was a fine day — and part of Sunday. Anyway the countryside looks wonderful — when you can see it through the rain.

After you get your roof in good shape then it is time to look at the inside of your house. Are you tired of wallpaper but is the plaster too badly cracked for paint? We can solve your problem. Use Gyptex the distinctive wall covering. The cost is moderate being only 2c per square foot when applied yourself. It comes in six pastel colours. Come in and we will explain its advantages.

See you . . . even if we can't hear you . . . at the motorcycle races.

IN THE MAIL BAG

Dear Mr. Editor:

Information please! Citizens in general who have vegetable gardens would like to know how long the dogs are going to be allowed to run through the gardens. If it is going to be all summer like last year, then the citizens will know not to bother any more about gardens.

It would be a great convenience if the Police Committee would answer this, either yes or no. But don't make it no unless you intend to enforce the law.
