Bobby Locke Will Defend Canadian Open

The Canadian Open, Canada's top golfing spectacle, comes late in the season this year but already South Africa's Bobby Locke is looming up as a man who is going to be hard to beat when he defends his title in the classic at Vancouver.

Locke, whose 16 below par win at Toronto Scarborough last year made him the first man to take the Seagram Gold Cup outside North America, has been playing his usual excellent golf throughout a winter of campaigning in the United States. He's a definite entry to defend his Canadian title and the Gold Cup over the Shaughnessy Heights course at Vancouver Sept. 22-25.

During the winter season, up to May 3, Locke has collected more than $9,000 in prize money in the States, after shooting 43 tournament rounds for an average of 69.8. At that time, he was running second to Lloyd Mangrum, Seagram Gold Cup winner of two years ago — in winter earnings.

On the face of it, that second-place business would seem to indicate that Locke has fallen off the terrific pace he set in his first invasion of North America, but the experts say that isn't so. They point out that the big South African last year did much better during the summer season than during the winter when the weather was none too warm, and the grass none too green and soft. They look to him to improve his 1948 showing from now on.

Before defending his Canadian title at Vancouver, Locke will tour Western Canada on an exhibition series with Vancouver's Stan Leonard, generally regarded as Canada's No. 1 hope to cop the Gold Cup and the lion's share of the $10,000 prize money put up by its donors. That tour plus a number of other exhibition engagements, to say nothing of all the tournaments included on the U.S. pro circuit, will assure Locke of plenty of work prior to the Canadian Open.

It all adds up to the fact that Locke is definitely shaping up as the man to beat at Vancouver come September.

TERRA COTTA

Sympathy is expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNally in the tragic death of their son, John, last Thursday evening.

Another landmark gone! On Tuesday morning, June 8th, fire destroyed an old barn on the 5th Line belonging to Mr. C. O'Brien. Some pigs and calves were burned. The fire spread so rapidly they could not be taken out. The barn was built by the Townsend family and must have been over 70 years old.

Why go to Wasaga Beach when we have one at home? Mr. Clancy informs us he is having one put on his property here on the mountain and Mr. Beer of Alton with his bulldozer is leveling the grounds which will all be covered with white sand. Mr. Clancy has his house completed and intends building some more.

Mr. T. Foster of Toronto has his cottage almost completed.

We are pleased to learn that master Beverly Eves is now able to go around without the aid of his crutches.

Mr. W. J. van der Vliet has his studio completed and has started his art classes. Terra Cotta should have a number of high class artists in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Craine of Toronto called on Terra Cotta friends recently.

Mr. C. Stoddard, who has been on the sick list, is now able to be up and around again.

Whitney - Buchanan Wedding in Brampton

Mary Brown Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Buchanan, Brampton, was united in marriage by Rev. William Weir on Saturday, June 12, in Brampton Presbyterian Church to Albert Houston Whitney, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Whitney, of Georgetown. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in silver satin, and a coronet headdress caught her floor length veil. Her attendants, Miss Mary McDonald as maid of honour, and Carol Buchanan as flower girl, were dressed alike in periwinkle blue taffeta gowns, Miss McDonald carrying a bouquet of red roses and Miss Buchanan carried a basket of roses. Mr. Stewart Buchanan, brother of the bride assisted by Miss Mavis Russell at the organ, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony. Mr. George Tracey of Toronto acted as best man and Messrs. John Whitney brother of the groom, and Art McCallister were ushers. At the reception held in the church parlours, the bride's mother received the guests wearing a blue-gray dress, navy and white accessories and a corsage of white orchids, assisted by the groom's mother who wore an aqua dress, black accessories and a corsage of red roses. For a wedding trip to Ottawa, the bride donned a navy blue suit with navy and white accessories. On their return they will make their home at 20 Elizabeth Street S, Brampton.

Holiday Closing

In accordance with our practice of the past years, we will take advantage of the holiday time business slump and close down completely for a period of four weeks. This enables us to give our entire personnel a well-earned rest without resorting to the hire of temporary help. In this way our standard of work is not impaired and everyone returns to work refreshed and ready to serve our many faithful customers with a quality of workmanship unexcelled.

May we take this opportunity to wish you a pleasant summer holiday and give promise of dependable service to your cleaning needs of the future.

Last pick-up July 7th for July 14th delivery.
