Mutual Leader Honoured

JOHN T. ARMSTRONG
The Mutual Life of Canada has released its Honours List, recognizing Mr. J. T. Armstrong of Georgetown for outstanding service to his community in the Club Year recently closed. He has again qualified as a member of the Company's Leaders' Century Club.
Qualification for Club membership requires not only the underwriting of a large volume of protection, but more important, the writing from year to year of "quality" business, that is, life insurance that is continued in force. These two factors, combined with a high personal standard of confidential service to policyholders, earn this recognition for Mutual Life representatives.

Shower at Norval for District Governor

At a meeting of the Georgetown Lions Club at the McGibbon House a week ago Monday, Deputy District Governor Bert Lewis installed the new officers for 1947-48, after which retiring Lion Chief Harold McClure turned over his gavel to the new chief, J. L. Lambert who will lead the club for the coming year.
Lion John Hamilton of the Ancaster club was guest speaker at the meeting, and talked to the group on "Communism". Mr. Hamilton, an ordained minister, has lived in many parts of the world, and his interesting background was sketched by John Gunning, who introduced him.
A letter from the Maple Ridge Lions Club at Honey, B.C., was read by the secretary, asking clubs in Ontario to consider assistance to flood victims in the western province. D. D. G. Lewis presented a past president's pin to Harold McClure and 100 per cent attendance pins to a group of Lions including Jack Armstrong, Roy Barker, Don Barrager, Walter Biehn, Thomas Elson, J. L. Lambert, Dick Lucas, Harold McClure, Frank Murfin, Lorne Peters, Art Scott, R. H. Ireland and Ray Whitice.

Shower at Norval for Miss Ethel Hyatt

On Tuesday evening, June 16th, Miss Ethel Hyatt was guest of honour at the home of Mrs. Hamilton McLaughlin, Norval, when about 40 ladies, members of Norval United Church and community gathered to present her with miscellaneous gifts in honour of her approaching marriage.
After several contests had been conducted the bride was asked to come forward and was seated in a chair under a cluster of white bells with pink and white streamers. A child's wagon decorated with pink and white paper was brought in by Carolyn McLaughlin and John Gordon Wilson, dressed as a bride and bridegroom, and presented to Ethel while Mrs. Harold Lyons played the wedding march.
Mrs. Lawrence May made a presentation address and Doris Hyatt, Betty May and Mrs. Don Ferguson assisted the bride-to-be in opening her gifts. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and assistants.
