Somerville - Hyatt Wedding

Pale pink and white peonies made a lovely setting at Norway United Church, Saturday, June 26th, for the marriage of Ethel Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hyatt to Mr. Norman Leslie Somerville, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Somerville. Rev. F. Dunlop officiated, Miss Milne was at the organ, and Mrs. Elgin Fretz sang "The Lord's Prayer" and during the signing of the register "Through the Years". Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a gown of white, pinked taffeta, graceful in princess lines, draped off the hips to form a pique plaited bustle, and sweeping skirt with a long train. A matching headpiece held her long embroidered veil. She carried a cascade of white lilies. Her maid of honour, Mrs. Doris Hyatt and bridesmaid, Mrs. Dolina Somerville were dressed in periwinkle blue taffeta with full hooped skirts. They wore matching gloves and crowns of flowers to match their cascade of multicolored sweet peas. The groomsmen were Oliver Mason and Ken Jackson. The reception was held at the bride's home, her mother receiving in a gown of dove grey faconne with black accessories and a corsage of pink and mauve sweet peas. The groom's mother wore powder blue faconne with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The happy couple left on a trip north, the bride travelling in a lovely pink-orchid suit of gabardine with navy blue accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. They will reside in Guelph at the end of the summer.

IN THE MAIL BAG

Belfountain, P.O.

Dear Mr. Biehn:

I am not much of a letter-writer, but we are holidaying in Belfountain and I saw your new article by Ann. Keep her at it. I haven't read anything as original and refreshing in a long while.

I think I know who Ann is and if so I might say it is time something was said about her. We knew her when we were in Georgetown. Gay in heart, lovable and lovely she possesses that rare nature we read about but so seldom meet. A very small child in the neighbourhood loves her. Nothing is ever too much trouble for her. Would to heaven there were more Anns in this world.
