Mackenzie News
Did you get all your odd jobs done during the long weekend? Or did the ragged beaver in you succumb to just lying in a deck chair and enjoying the summer weather? We got a bit mixed up last week and left out a couple of lines. In case you are mystified it was asphalt shingles we were talking about. They are $8.50 per square and come in blue, black, green or red or green and red blends. We still think they are a good investment in improving your home and adding to your peace of mind.

Do we see you with some tickets on the Lions Club draw? You may have the refrigerator and we'll take the automatic toaster. J. R. MACKENZIE and SON
