 Inconvenience and self-sacrifice are this man's constant companions. Yet his most cherished rewards are the friendly words and the eager pleasures which greet his coming.
 Men like this, some of Canada's finest, are in the public's service — at your service.

THE WEATHER

Mr. Editor:
 Sunday certainly was the redeeming day for the whole past week. Seemed as though the weather could not make up its mind what to do; just tried to rain a little each day; but could not make a job of it. It looked as though Saturday's north wind blew in disgust and came up with a new lease on summer for Sunday.
 —Ern Batkin
