ASHGROVE

The joint picnic meeting of the W.M.S. Mission Band and Baby Band was held last Tuesday after- noon at the home of Mrs. Hector Reid. Despite the nasty electric storm that came on just when folks were leaving home to go home was a goodly gathering of mothers and children. Mrs. Frank Riddell, the President opened with a splendid devotional on "Birds", and four Mission Band girls, Jean and Margaret Bird, Ann Barnes and Hazel Reid all gave Scripture readings, mentioning different birds. A lovely number was sung by the Mission Band "The World of God Shall Guide My Feet" with Jean Bird as accompanist. Mrs. Jean Riddell told the story of the little sick boy in India who was cured by the Christian Doctors and nurses, Jean Bird sweetly sang "The Power of the Cross" and prayer by Rev. Fred An- drews closed the meeting after which the children played games on the lawn and had lunch.

Next Sunday, August 8th, our number will be on holidays and the service will be in charge of the W.M.S. The speaker is Mrs. Bridle of Burlington, president of Halton Presbyterian. The service will be at 11 am. On August 15th the Young People have charge of the service and on the 22nd there will be no service.

Preston - Hulls Wedding in St. Catharines

On Saturday evening, July 31st, the wedding was quietly solemnized in Welbind Avenue United Church, St. Catharines, of Margret, daughter of Mrs. Lily Hulls of Geor- getown and the late James Hulls and Reginald Leslie Preston, son of Mrs. Rose Preston of St. Cathar- ines and the late Walter Preston.

Rev. A. A. Rogers performed the ceremony and the church was dec- orated with gladioli and fern.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, William Hulls of Georgetown and she wore ice blue crepe with matching, halo hat and corsage of gladioli petals and pink roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Melvin Reid of Port Elgin, wearing a pink net dress, matching ribbon hat and corsage of pink roses. Mr. Elmer Preston was his brother's groomsman. Mr. Douglas Campbell was organist and Mr. Charles Himann sang "Because" during the signing of the register.

Following a reception at the Queensway Hotel, the couple left for Georgetown to spend Sunday with the bride's mother who, due to illness, was unable to attend the wedding. Following a trip in the Kawartha Lakes District they will reside at 18 Lowell Ave., St. Catharines.
