

DANGER AMID GAUITY Under an assumed name, during Lappy Parks' leader of the MacArden clan, wins the coveted trophy of his sworn enemies, the Glawins. Disclosure will mean instant death! This scene is from Columbia's elaborately filmed Technicolor drama, "The Swordsman," at the Roxy Theatre. The Glawins are portrayed by Marc Platt, Ellen Drew, lovely high and liss for whom Parks risks his life, Homes Herbert and George Macready.

CASH PRIZES FOR JAMS, JELLIES AT GEORGETOWN FAIR

By permission of the Fair Management, the makers of Certo brand fruit pectin are giving special cash prizes at the Esqueasing Agricultural Society Fair, Georgetown, September 17th and 18th. Prizes for jams made with Certo are: first $4; second $3; third $2; fourth $1. Similar prizes for jellies made with Certo. Exhibits must be entered to conform with fair regulations and the decision of the fair judges will be final. Consult the fair rules as to how to enter this friendly competition. Certo is on sale in grocery stores. 72-kitchen-tested recipes are given with every bottle of Certo.

It wouldn't be an opening if we didn't have the band; let's gather at Gordian's. And give the boys a hand. And if you see a bandsman with trumpet up to the down, just stop a quarter of an hour for a band-aid for our town.

A good band is a wonderful asset to any town. We have two bands. They deserve all the help we can give them. Get Band Conscious for every occasion.

Mr. R. S. Murray of Norval, one of the district's best commercial gladioli growers, brought a lovely bouquet to the Herald Office last week which for want of a proper vase was passed on to the girls in the Bell Telephone Office. The bouquet was made up of two varieties, Lady Jane, in yellow and Huntress in mauve.
