This is just to say we thank you for an opening that was grand; We know you liked the candy; As we know you liked the band; And now that it's all over Don't forget that little treat, Cordaro's Home-Made Candy. The flavour can't be beat.

MacKenzie News

Here we are back again at the old grind after a holiday. By Wednesday it seems as if we had never been away at all.

The dry weather is the time to think about your roof before it rains. We have newly arrived a car of White Cedar shingles. These are air dried and the wood shingles best suited to our Ontario climate. Extras are $10.80 per square. Clears $9.60 and No. 2 Clears $8.40.

Probably won't see you at all this week. We went away for the change and came home for the rest (maybe a little broke too.)

HIGHLIGHTS IN FAIR PRIZE LIST

Following are a few of the late specials in the Georgetown Fair prize list.

Mr. A. Thornton of Guelph offers a prize of $1.50 and $1.00 to the Public or Rural School pupil writing the best essay on the history of the Gladoll, and also offers $1.00 for the best 6 apples in the open classes.

The Robert Simpson Co. offers a Parker Pen to the boy or girl winning the most number of points at the fair in all sections.

T. J. Brownridge offers $5.00 cash for the best bushel of oats, shown by a member of the oat competition.

A special prize is offered by the Society for the best vegetable display — not less than 15 varieties, 2 of each — 1st, $10.00; 2nd, $5.00 in attractive display.

Besides the large list of items in the Domestic Science class, with such attractive prizes, Maple Cream and Cocoa Pudge candy, have been added. Extra Special awards and classes have been added to the ladies' work section and prospective entrants in this class should contact lady pres., Charlotte McCullough for further particulars.

Prize lists will be available in about two weeks' time.
