

"Our Long Distance Switchboards are growing bigger"

THE NUMBER of Long Distance calls is at an all-time high — and still going higher. Though some calls are delayed, most are put through "while you hold the line". More cables and switchboards are being added just as fast as possible to make Long Distance service even speedier. These additions, plus unseen technical improvements, are part of our continuing program to provide the best telephone service at the lowest possible cost.

Georgetown Native Dies in Stratford

Death claimed a former Georgetown resident on Wednesday morning, August 11th, when Mrs. Norman Hill passed away in Stratford General Hospital after an illness of only three days. Born in Georgetown, Mrs. Hill, formerly Mabel Roy, was the daughter of the late Douglas Roy and Mary Jane Lyburner. She was in her 68th year. In 1904 she married Norman Hill of Alma and since then had lived mainly in Stratford and Southampton. Four years ago they retired to Sebringville where she took an active part in church and Wm. L. Institute work. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Helen (Mrs. Douglas MacAulay), Weston, one sister, Elfrida (Mrs. Robert Aitcheson), St. Pauls and two grandchildren, David and Nicky MacAulay. The funeral from her late residence on Friday was conducted by Rev. N. E. Dahms assisted by Rev. H. H. Leibold, both of Sebringville. Pallbearers were five nephews, Roy and Douglas Aitcheson, Downie, Norman Aitcheson, Sebringville, Lloyd Aitcheson, St. Marys, Homer Henderson, Listowel and Arthur Speight, Georgetown. Interment was made in Sebringville Cemetery.

Earl Montgomery Now at American College

Visitors in town last week were two former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Montgomery, who now make their home in Columbus, Ohio. During their residence here, the Montgomeries lived in the house near the monument now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Evans and family and Mr. Montgomery was employed as a ceramic engineer with Smith and Stone Ltd. Eight years ago they moved to the States and at present he is engaged in research work with the United States Army Air Force at Columbus University.

PASSES EXAMS AS NURSING ASSISTANT

Miss Elsie Bird received word last week that she had been successful in passing her examinations as a Certified Nursing Assistant. Miss Bird took her course at the Prince Edward County Hospital at Picton.

What Council Did

ON THURSDAY, AUGUST 12

Chose three men to appear for interviews on Monday night for the position of town foreman. The meeting had been called for the purpose of reviewing applications for the position, of which there were twelve. An original motion by Goodlet and Whitmore to have four men come for interviews was rejected in favour of an amendment by Davidson and Armstrong which eliminated one of these, an applicant from Timmins. It was a recorded vote with Goodlet, Whitmore and MacLaren voting against.

Instructed the clerk to write John Cordaro, explaining that under a by-law passed in October, 1942, in answer to a petition from merchants, the present closing hours were established and that in order to have these changed another petition would be necessary. Mr. Cordaro had asked permission to keep his new candy store open until ten o'clock in the evenings. (Moved by Armstrong and MacLaren).

$491 AVERAGE AT OAKVILLE CONSIGNMENT SALE

The Fourth Oakville Consignment Sale held July 30 at the Oakville Sales Arena, realized a total of $25,045 for a general average of $491 on 51 head. An additional 30 head comprising the dispersal of the Glenholson herd of H. W. Hodson, Brooklin, brought a total of $8,895 for an average of $294.00. The top price of $1450 was received by Willis J. Burton, Woodstock, from W. G. Heat shimmering over green fields . . . the good smell of rain on warm earth . . . and of drying timothy and clover . . . the barn a shadowy refuge from the sun . . .

Time now to be making arrangements for extra help, for harvesting and threshing crews . . . and money to finance operations till the crop is sold. Money to meet this need is always available at the Royal Bank. Call on your nearest branch manager and discuss your loan requirements with him. Ask him, too, about Farm Improvement Loans and how they can be used for the benefit of the farm, the farmer and his family.
