Nassagaweya Busy Bees Institute Meets

Mrs. Jennie Howard was hostess for the August meeting of the Nassagaweya Busy Bees W.I. Roll Call was answered by "Courtesies worth observing". The president, Mrs. Peter McClean was in the chair and Mrs. Robinson read the correspondence which included the Fall Fair list, convention program and a letter from the Navy League. Mrs. McLeath was chosen delegate to the area convention. For a money-making scheme, Mrs. McLeath is giving a donation for next month.

The problem box produced a raspberry cane disease and its control, and the advice that to temper graniteware will lengthen its time of use. The Institute is planning a bazaar sometime in November. Mrs. Little, convener of Home Economics, presented a paper "What's in a name?", that told of all the things learned and made use of under home economics. Mrs. Tuck read the paper for her.

Mrs. J. J. Kennedy read a poem "I am courtesy" and several jokes were enjoyed during the afternoon. Mrs. Howard served lunch to nine members and two guests who attended, threshing operations on two neighbouring farms keeping several ladies from attending.
