PENSIONER HAS LOST MONEY RETURNED

Thanks to the honesty of a Georgetown lady, Mrs. Harold Robinson, an old age pensioner had twelve dollars returned which he lost in loose bills on the street last week. Mrs. Robinson found the money and inserted an advertisement in the Herald. The next day the gentleman who had lost the money came into the office to put in an ad and was referred to Mrs. Robinson, whom he suitably rewarded.

MOVE FROM TORONTO TO GEORGETOWN

Cecil MacNamara, manager of Simmons Jewellers, who has been commuting from Toronto since the store was opened here, has located a house here and was joined last week by his wife and children, Mary and Peter. They will occupy the house on King Street built by Vic Diggins beside the Keith Barber residence. The previous tenants, Mr. and Mrs. William Given, have moved to Acton. It is in the nature of a homecoming for Mrs. MacNamara, who was the former Marion Dilly and lived here for several years with her parents, Mr. William Dilly of Galt and the late Mrs. Dilly.

Lions, Duffy's Lead in Fastball Semi-Finals
