DeVries-McKee Wedding In Weston Church

The marriage took place in Westminster United Church, Weston, on Saturday, September 4th, of Maurita Kennedy McKee, daughter of Mr. Frederick McKee of Sterling and the late Mrs. McKee, and Frits Lykke DeVries, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lykke DeVries of Georgetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Chas. McLaren. Mrs. McKelvey was at the organ and during the service Mr. Alex White sang "Because" and "I Love You." Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Walter McConnell, the bride wore a wedding gown of blush satin with a train and full-length veil and carried a bouquet of white gladioli. Her bridesmaid, Miss Margaret McCabe, was gowned in mauve brocade and carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli. Mr. Henk DeVries was groomsmen for his brother and the ushers were Robert Marchington of Georgetown and Grant-Smith of Toronto. At a reception at the Old Mill, Mrs. Walter McConnell received for her sister, wearing a grey crepe dress with black accessories. The groom's mother wore pastel blue with brown accessories. Both had corsages of pink rosebuds. After a honeymoon trip to Montreal and the Laurentians, the couple will take up residence in Weston.

District Newlyweds Will Live in Sudbury

Yellow gladioli and roses formed the setting in St. Peter's Church of England, Erindale on Friday, August 27th, for the wedding of Lois Elizabeth Ballinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Ballinger and Bruce James McKinney, son of Mrs. William Norton of Georgetown. Rev. George F. Banks officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown fashioned on Princess Line, with full back extending into a train, and a deep yoke of tulle with draped shoulder line. Matching pearls encrusted the neckline and she wore a long veil of tulle illusion created with a beaded coronet. She carried a cascade of white gladioli and stephanotis. Mrs. John O'Connell of Toronto, matron of honour wore pink marquisette over taffeta, matching dutch cap, with shoulder length veil. Miss Pearl Leslie of Streetville was bridesmaid in pink taffeta and matching headpiece. Both attendants carried cascades of pink gladioli and stephanotis. Mr. John O'Connell of Toronto was groomsmen, and ushers were William Cook of Brampton and William Hearn of Toronto. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home where her mother received in Victoria wine with matching feather corsage and a corsage of Tallman roses. The groom's mother assisted in wine cups with black accessories and a corsage of Tallman roses. For a trip to Montreal the bride chose an ensemble of copper satin with brown feather hat and accessories and a corsage of green gladioli and stephanotis.

Lillian Alderson and Charles Crawford Wed Saturday

Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson officiated at the wedding in St. George's Church at two o'clock on Saturday, September 11, of Gladys Lillian Alderson and Charles Crawford. The bride is the daughter of the late Marshall Alderson and the late Mrs. William Jaffray and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford of Glen Williams. Mrs. W. P. Bradley played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, James Alderson, wore a wedding gown of embroidered nylon with net yolk, fitted bodice and papiers. Her headpiece was of seed pearls from which fell a floor-length veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Audrey Mitchell was matron of honour, wearing pale green brocade taffeta, styled on Princess line, with matching Dutch cap head-dress and carrying a bouquet of yellow roses. The gowns of the bridesmaids, Misses Dorothy Lane and Marie Roe were of similar styling in yellow and mauve and they carried bouquets of red and pink roses. The bride and her attendants all wore single strands of pearls.

Mr. Jack Crawford was his brother's groomsmen and ushers were the bride's brother-in-law, Erwin Lewis and Robert Preston.

Mrs. Erwin Lewis received for her sister at a reception in the Oddfellows Hall, wearing a grey dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother, who assisted, wore a maroon dress with corsage of roses.

For a northern honeymoon trip the bride changed to a pale blue gabardine suit with navy accessories and corsage of red roses. The couple will make their home in Glen Williams on their return. Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from Toronto, Creemore and Alliston.

LIMEHOUSE

School re-opened last week with an enrolment at S. S. No. 9 of twenty one, including three beginners, and Miss Jean Ruddell again in charge. Seventeen are attending S. S. No. 16, three of them beginners and Mrs. Barboe again teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Millere spent last week at Coe Hill with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Scratch also spending the week-end there.

A group of Limehouse W.I. ladies catered for the Crawford-Alderson wedding reception in the I.O.O.F. Hall on Saturday.

The W.I. entered fifteen exhibits in the Glen Williams Fair last week, winning eleven prizes.

Over twenty attended the W.I. meeting at the home of Mrs. Ellery on Thursday. Roll Call was answered by "Control of One Garden Pest." It was announced that Miss Spencer will conduct a course in "Needlepoint" October 6, 7 and 8; that the gift parcel sent the poor family in England last month was valued near $10; that the school field day would be held very soon and the next meeting would be held at Mrs. Geo. Leslie's on Tuesday, October 12.

Mrs. Frank Brown convener of agriculture and Canadian industries was chairman for the program when Mrs. Noble read current events, Mrs. Kirkpatrick the motto: "Whistle While You Work", and Mrs. Batkin told of her trip to the C.N.E. where she was a guest at the luncheon where Mrs. Kate Alken presided. Other conveners read short items of interest.

Mr. Walter Blahn, editor and publisher of the Georgetown Herald was guest speaker, giving an illustrated talk on "What A Weekly Publisher does with his time and how his paper is assembled."

It was decided to purchase a picture taken at the recent Guelph convention to be put in the Tweedsmuir Village History. The president suggested that this book should be brought to meeting periodically for members to see.

Mrs. Brown conducted a surname contest where Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Smethurst were winners. The hostess served lunch after the meeting.

Mr. Anthony Bourne left Tuesday morning for St. Catharines where he is a student at Ridley College.

Mr. Ted Leslie won 2nd in judging horses at the CNE and 3rd in farm produce in Junior Farmer competition. Congratulations, Ted.
