HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

by Lloyd
Hurray Hip, Hip and all that sort of bally-who. G.H.S. has finally won a school meet. (The first time in three years). Last Wednesday in competition with Acton, Milton and Erin we came out the undisputed victors. Georgetown led the field all the way with only two occasions when they trailed by half a point. The final score was as follows: Georgetown 161½, Milton 119, Acton 115, Erin 53. Erin only brought a small team and did very well in comparison to the number of athletes they had entered.
Wednesday morning about 9.30, the team and a few other athletic minded students, piled into two of Scott's buses to begin the long and tedious journey to the thriving metropolis of Milton. Half an hour later we came to rest at Milton H. S. eager for some of the most important physical battles of the time which might in its outcome change the entire complexion of the world today.

One of the most striking and pleasing features of the day was girls in shorts. There were short ones, tall ones, fat ones, thin ones, blondes, brunettes and redheads. WHAT A DAY! We never saw so many pretty girls in the flesh in such a small space before. (UI-UI-drool, droivel, drivel and all that sort of rot).

We did not see all the events but of those we did see Georgetown put on a better show than she has in previous years. One of the most notable performance was by Doug Ireland in the Intermediate Pole Vault. He beat all competitors and was still clearing the bar with no trouble. Bill Arnold put on a fine display in the running events winning all the races he entered. Other outstanding shows were put on by Don Burns, Ruth and Mary McNally to only mention a few. To be exact I will say the whole team was just the best there was. Champions for the day were: Meb Blow (Sr. Boys) Acton; Don Burns (Int. Boys) Georgetown; T. Walker (Sr. Boys) Milton; for the girls Ida Herensburger (Sr. Girls) Milton; Mary McNally (Int. Girls) Georgetown; Doreen Cole (Jr. Girls) Acton.

We were not able to obtain the complete list of winners for this week but will have it next week for sure.
The next day, Thursday, there was a rugby game between two of the school's eight man rugby teams. These teams are managed by K. Scott and R. Dennam. It was a ferocious plunging game all the way. One of the stars of the game was Super Mouse alias Bud Varey. That man was a mighty mess of bulging uniform. With his shoulder pads up around his ears and his pants up around his shoulders, his hat down over his eyes, he was as formidable as a turtle, and served valiantly as quarterback. Your on the spot ever-alert reporter really has a hot piece of news on this game though and it is as follows: we neglected to find out who won and by what score but never you mind it was still a great game.
