STEWARTTOWN
Esqueing W.I. met in the school Tuesday evening; presided over by Mrs. L. DeVries. The Roll Call was answered by "A Beauty Spot in Ontario". It was decided to send a box for Christmas to a member recently gone to England Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Henderson were hostesses for refreshments served.
Miss Davies, and the school children held a very nice party Friday night in the school for Sylvia, Betty and Pat Barrow who are leaving shortly for England. Several of the mothers of the pupils were present. The children entertained their guests with songs and drills.
After which Sylvia, Betty and Pat were asked to be seated at desks.
The older girls then brought them a shower of small gifts for them to take with them. Sylvia thanked Miss Davies and the school for herself and sisters. Lunch was served by the mothers, to close a very pleasant evening.
Mr. Fisk of Port Credit was in charge of the service Sunday afternoon at St. John's Church. Mr.
Maxwell is taking a brief holiday visiting his old home in Florida.
Birthday greetings to Lillian Lawson who was 2 on Sunday and Lps Mileham, 13 on Monday.

BAPTIST CHURCH HIGHLIGHTS
The sermon subject on Sunday morning was "The Christian's Burden." The text was found in Galatians 6, 2 and 5. The following truths were presented.
1. The burden of our life or the responsibility of our living. We have within ourselves the making of our destiny.
2. The burden of our life's work.
What are we accomplishing in the world?
3. The burden of the souls of others. We are our brother's keeper.
4. The burden of daily prayer.
Jesus bears the burden of His people as He intercedes for them in Heaven.
Some day we will have to answer before God for our living. No one else can take our place. It will be a personal matter then, our Christian living should be a personal matter before God now.
The evening service was withdrawn to attend the Presbyterian Anniversary.
The President, Douglas Peck, was in charge of the BYPU meeting Monday evening. The topic given by Douglas Peck was a real help to all. He spoke on "Life Rivets", saying people should build themselves characters to match the example taught by Christ; the main rivet being to give one's life to Christ.
There is a growing interest in Bible-Study every Wednesday evening. The Missionary journeys of St. Paul are being taken at present.

PREACHES AT BRAMPTON MASONIC SERVICE
Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson was preacher at the annual Church service of I. O. O. F. Masonic Lodge, Brampton, which was held in Christ Church last Sunday afternoon. Wor. Master Campkin was in charge of the service.

Mackenzie News
We've already had a few snow flurries so now we can look for Indian summer. — I'm thinking it's not only the Indians who need a sharp reminder that winter's a-comin'.
A good fall job is to remodel your kitchen or bathroom. One of the items formerly scarce but which we now have on hand is Masonite wallboard.
This makes a perfect base for paint or enamel.
Standard masonite is 10c per sq. ft. Tempered masonite is 14c per sq. ft. Black masonite is 18c per sq. ft. Tempertile is 18c per sq. ft.
