Two Wins for Burlington at G.R.C. Field Day

Rain marred the G.R.C. Track and Field Championships on Saturday afternoon and forced cancellation of some of the jumping events when it was ruled that it was too dangerous to continue. The track events, including the mile run, were finished in a heavy downpour. Burlington High School made almost a clean sweep in the high school events to retain the Barringer Trophy for a second year. Burlington Public School also captured the G.R.C. Trophy from last year's winners, Georgetown. Winners in the various classes were:

Girls' Open Events:

60 yard — Joan Bowman, (B), Judy Townsend (B), Dorothy Williams (G); 100 yard — Ina Giddings (B), Mildred Shaw (B), Judy Townsend (B); Relay — Burlington, 1, 2, and 3.

Boys' Open Events:

110 yard — Dick Gillies (B), Bill Mayberry (B), Davis Foster (B); 220 yard — Mayberry (B), Fortner (B), Bob Wyatt (B); Mile — Edward Sostar (B), Keith Atkins (M), Tom Bounsall (M); Mixed Relays — Burlington, 1, 2, and 3.

High School Girls:

75 yards — Ina Giddings (B), Bea Hewton (B), Ruth McNally (G); 100 yards — Judy Townsend (B), Mary Jane Arnold (G), Lynn Borisuk (B); Relay — Burlington, Georgetown (Ruth McNally, Mary McNally, Dolores Herrington, Mary Jane Arnold), Burlington; R. Br. Jump — Marilyn Sheets (B), Mildred Lucas (B), Ruth McNally (G); St. Br. Jump — Sheets (B), Lucas (B), Ida Herensberger (M).

High School Boys:

100 yards — Bill Mayberry (B), Dick Gillies (B), Bill Arnold (G); 220 yards — Gillies (B), Wyatt (B), Brown (M); 440 yards — Fortner (B), Bob Wyatt (B), Terry Walker (M); 880 yards — Tom Glover (B), Mayberry (B), Keith Atkins (M); Relay — Burlington, Burlington, Milton; High Jump — Edward Sostar (B), Alan Utter (B), Rold Ellis (M); R. Br. Jump — Fortner (B), Bob Ghent (B), Walker (M); Mixed Relay — Burlington, Burlington, Milton.

Public School Girls:

Public School Boys: 75 yard — Jim Bates (B), Francis Hulme (G), Bruce Denham (G); 100 yard — Leonard Stasla (B), Peter Bowman (B), Ross McGill (G); 100 yard — (13-15) John deBeaulieu (G), Don Forz (G), Ellis Dryden (B); Relay — Burlington, Georgetown (deBeaulieu, Ford, McGill, Lawrence, Rayner), Burlington. High Jump — Rayner (G), Dryden (B), deBeaulieu (G).

WEAVING DEMONSTRATION AT NORVAL INSTITUTE MEETING

Mrs. Ern Batkin of Wildwood demonstrated the art of weaving on her portable loom and showed samples of her work at the October meeting of Norval Women's Institute. Mrs. Walter Fidler was hostess and Mrs. Miller, president of Lighthouse Institute was a guest. Mrs. Graydon Chester, the president, occupied the chair. The secretary, Mrs. Joseph Murray reported that 72 cups are being donated to the public school and Mrs. E. C. Reed displayed three lovely pictures which will also be presented to the school. Miss Prairie Maguire reported that gifts had been sent to World War 1 veterans in Christie Street Hospital. Christmas parcels for Britain are being prepared.

Mrs. W. Cromar gave some monologues as part of the program. The Institute is sponsoring a free X-ray clinic on October 28 in the Parish Hall. Mrs. E. C. Reed, Miss Prairie Maguire, Mrs. Frank Pendley and Mrs. C. Moreton will canvass the village and Mrs. Lorne Cleave the surrounding farms to encourage attendance. Assistants at the clinic will be Mrs. Cleave, Miss Maguire, Mrs. J. Hunter, Mrs. Graydon Chester and Mrs. O. Hunter. The hostess with Mrs. Wishart and Mrs. Murray Laird, served tea. Mrs. N. A. Robinson will be hostess for the November meeting.

E. V. MacCormack spoke to the children at a special Sunday School rally, at St. George's Church last Sunday.

Masonic Service For Alexander Irvine

A resident of Ballinacraig for the past six years, Alexander Irvine passed away in Guelph General Hospital on Saturday, October 16. He was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, 79 years ago and came to Canada at the age of ten. He had lived in Ottawa and Toronto where he was an agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, retiring eight years ago. Mr. Irvine was a member of the Church of England and of Dalhousie Lodge, AF and AM, Ottawa. He is survived by his wife, Sarah Cookley, with whom he celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in September, and one son, Douglas, of Detroit, Michigan. A brother, William Irvine, lives in Toronto.

The funeral service was conducted by Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson in St. George's Church of England on Tuesday afternoon, and the Masonic service was held at the graveside in Greenwood Cemetery. Wor. Bro. Denny Charles was in charge and pall-bearers were Dan Campbell, James Kirkwood, Lykle DeVries, Wakefield Ford, Campbell Sinclair and Ern Batkin.

Funeral Services for Mrs. W. T. Beam

Rev. F. J. Dunlop of Norval officiated at a funeral service at the McClure Funeral Home on Monday evening, October 11th, for Mrs. W. T. Beam, who passed away in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton. On Wednesday, a second service was held at the McClure Home, Brantford, with interment following in Vanessa Cemetery. Mrs. Beam was well-known in the Glen where she had made her home with her son during her illness. She was predeceased ten years ago by her husband. Surviving are two sons, Stanley of Glen Williams and Harry of Detroit, Michigan, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Pall-bearers were two grandsons, Harold and Edward Beam, J. L. Davidson of Toronto, and A. Richards, C. Main and Russell Ion of Brantford.

Canadians have reason to be proud of their record in the world of sport. With a determination to work together, to be less critical and a bit more confident in the youth of the nation, much progress can be made. Sport is worthwhile. Those who by their time and efforts, their enthusiasm, their financial support, make all the Dominion's athletic expeditions possible, are doing a sound and effective work. They deserve recognition and support.

Garage Operators' Meet

The October meeting of the Halton branch of the Garage Operators' Association was held in the Oddfellows Hall in Milton. This meeting was given for the benefit of the Trade and consisted of a demonstration in action of the Manbee Wheel Balancer.

Gord Bowskill of Van Wagner Electric Co., Toronto, demonstrated the machine in action and gave a very thorough talk on its advantages to the Trade. A question period followed and the entire meeting took part in discussion on the operation and merits of the machine. Refreshments were served by the Branch to all attending.
